- FIVE containers that you can buy food in
- SIX things that people sometimes have for breakfast

b ➤ p.152 Vocabulary Bank Food and cooking.

c ①4)) Listen to these common adjectives to describe food. Do you know what they mean? Then say one kind of food that we often use with each adjective.

canned fresh frozen low-fat raw spicy take-out

3 LISTENING & SPEAKING

FOOD & EATING

- 1 Is there any food or drink that you couldn't live without? How often do you eat / drink it?
- 2 Do you ever have
  - a ready-made food?
  - b take-out food? What kind?
- 3 What's your favorite
  - a fruit?
  - b vegetable?

Are there any that you really don't like?
- 4 When you eat out do you usually order meat, fish, or vegetarian?
- 5 What food do you usually eat
  - a when you're feeling a little down?
  - b before playing sports or exercising?
  - c before you have an exam or some important work to do?

2 PRONUNCIATION vowel sounds

a Look at the eight sound pictures. What are the words and sounds?

1 	squid chicken spicy grilled	5 	sausage roast chocolate box
2 	beef steamed beans breakfast	6 	pork fork boiled pour
3 	grapes salmon lamb cabbage	7 	cook sugar pudding food
4 	margarine carton jar warm	8 	spoon zucchini fruit duck

b Look at the words in each list. Cross out the word that doesn't have the sound in the sound picture.

c ①5)) Listen and check.

a ①6)) Listen to five people talking. Each person is answering one of the questions in Food & Eating above. Match each speaker with a question.

- |                                      |                                    |
|--------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> 4 Speaker A | <input type="checkbox"/> Speaker D |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Speaker B   | <input type="checkbox"/> Speaker E |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Speaker C   |                                    | b Listen again and make notes about their answers. Compare with a partner.

c Ask and answer the questions with a partner. What do you have in common?

4 READING

- a Are the foods in the list carbohydrates or proteins? With a partner, think of four more kinds of food for each category.

cake chicken pasta salmon

- b With a partner, answer the questions below with either carbohydrates or proteins.

What kind of food do you think it is better to eat...?

- for lunch if you have an important exam or meeting
  - for breakfast
  - for your evening meal
  - if you are feeling stressed
- c Look at the title of the article. What do you think it means? Read the article once to find out, and to check your answers to b.
- d Read the article again. Then with a partner, say in your own words why the following people are mentioned. Give as much information as you can.

- 1 Dr. Paul Clayton
- 2 people on diets
- 3 schoolchildren
- 4 Paul and Terry
- 5 Swiss researchers

- e Find adjectives in the article for the verbs and nouns in the list. What's the difference between the two adjectives made from stress?

stress (noun) (x2) relax (verb) wake (verb) sleep (verb) power (noun) benefit (noun)

- f Ask and answer the questions with a partner.

- 1 What time of day do you usually eat protein and carbohydrates? How do they make you feel?
- 2 How often do you eat chocolate? Does it make you feel happier?
- 3 After reading the article, is there anything you would change about your eating habits?

Mood food

We live in a stressful world, and daily life can sometimes make us feel tired, stressed, or depressed. Some people go to the doctor for help, others try alternative therapies, but the place to find a cure could be somewhere completely different: in the kitchen.

Dr. Paul Clayton, a food expert from Middlesex University, says "The brain is affected by what you eat and drink, just like every other part of your body. Certain types of food contain substances that affect how you think and feel."

For example, food that is high in carbohydrates can make us feel more relaxed. It also makes us feel happy. Research has shown that people on diets often begin to feel a little depressed after two weeks because they are eating fewer carbohydrates.

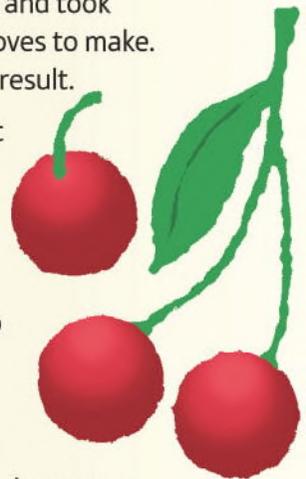

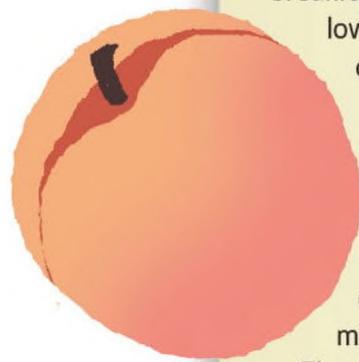

On the other hand, food that is rich in protein makes us feel awake and focused. Research has shown that schoolchildren who eat a high-protein breakfast often do better at school than children whose breakfast is lower in protein. Also, eating the right kind of meal at lunchtime can make a difference if you have an exam in the afternoon or a business meeting where you need to make some quick decisions. In an experiment for a TV show, two chess players, both former champions, had different meals before playing each other. Paul had a plate of prosciutto and salad (full of protein from the red meat), and his opponent Terry had pasta with a creamy sauce (full of carbohydrates). In the chess match Terry felt sleepy and took much longer than Paul to make decisions about what moves to make. The experiment was repeated several times with the same result.

Another powerful mood food could become a replacement for some medications doctors prescribe for stress. In a study, Swiss researchers discovered that eating one dark chocolate candy bar (about 1.4 ounces) had beneficial effects on highly stressed people. Not only did eating the dark chocolate help reduce stress, it was also shown to improve mood and reduce high blood pressure.

Why does chocolate make people less stressed? First, it causes the body to reduce the level of the stress hormone cortisol. Second, it reduces the "fight or flight" hormone—a hormone that makes people want to start a fight or run away when they are very stressed. In addition, it contains other compounds that lower blood pressure and improve your mood. These three things, along with its delicious taste, make chocolate a powerful mood changer.

Mood food – what the experts say

- Blueberries and cocoa can raise concentration levels for up to five hours.
- Food that is high in protein helps your brain to work more efficiently.
- For relaxation and to sleep better, eat carbohydrates.
- Dark green vegetables (e.g., cabbage and spinach) and oily fish (e.g., salmon) eaten regularly can help to fight depression.

5 LISTENING & SPEAKING

- a Ask and answer the questions with a partner.

RESTAURANTS

- How often do you eat out?
- What's your favorite...?
  - a kind of food (Chinese, Italian, etc.)
  - restaurant dish
- How important are these things to you in a restaurant? Number them 1–4 (1 = the most important).
  - the food
  - the service
  - the atmosphere
  - the price
- Have you ever tried English food? What did you think of it?

- b 1 7) Read the text about Steve Anderson. Then listen to Part 1 of an interview with him, and number the photos in the order he mentions them.
- c Listen again. Why does he mention each thing?
- d 1 8) Now listen to Part 2 and answer the questions.
- What does he say is the best and worst thing about running a restaurant?
  - What's the main difference between British and Spanish customers?
  - What kinds of customers does he find difficult?
  - How does he think eating habits in Spain are changing?
- e What about you? Answer the questions with a partner.
- What was your favorite food when you were a child?
  - Is there anything that you like / don't like cooking?
  - In your country, when people eat out would they usually tell the chef what they really think about the food?
  - Do you know anyone who is a "difficult customer" in restaurants?

A

STEVE ANDERSON has always had a passion for food. He was first taught to cook by his mother, who is half Burmese. After studying physics in college, he got a summer job helping with a cooking course in Italy, where he met several famous chefs. One of them, Alastair Little, later hired him as a trainee chef. Two years later, he moved to Valencia in Spain and opened a restaurant, Seu Xerea, now one of the most popular restaurants in town.

6 GRAMMAR

simple present and continuous, action and nonaction verbs

a 1 9)) Listen again to some of the things Steve said. Circle the form of the verb he uses.

- 1 This week for example, I cook / I'm cooking nearly every day. We usually close / are usually closing on Sundays and Mondays, but this Monday is a public holiday.
- 2 The British always say / are saying that everything is lovely.
- 3 Actually, I think I prefer / I am preferring that honesty, because it helps us to know what people like.
- 4 Unfortunately, I think they get / they're getting worse. People eat / are eating more unhealthily.

b With a partner, say why you think he has chosen each form.

c ➤ p.132 Grammar Bank 1A. Learn more about the simple present and the present continuous, and practice them.

d Make questions to ask your partner with the simple present or continuous. Ask for more information.

On a typical day

- What / usually have for breakfast?
- / drink soda? How many glasses / drink a day?
- Where / usually have lunch?
- What / usually have for lunch during the week?
- / ever cook? What / make?
- / prefer eating at home or eating out?

Right now / nowadays

- / need to buy any food today?
- / want anything to eat right now? What?
- / take vitamins or food supplements right now?
- / try to cut down on anything right now?
- / the diet in your country / get better or worse?

7 SPEAKING

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

- 1 Men are better cooks than women.
- 2 Both boys and girls should learn to cook at school.
- 3 Cheap restaurants usually serve bad food.
- 4 On a night out with friends, where and what you eat isn't important.
- 5 Not all fast food is unhealthy.
- 6 Every country thinks that their cuisine is the best in the world.

a 1 13)) Listen to two people discussing sentence 1. Who do you agree with more, the man or the woman? Why?

b 1 14)) Listen to the phrases in the Useful language box. Copy the intonation.

Useful language: Giving your opinion (1)

I agree.	I'm not sure.	For example,...
I don't agree.	(I think) it depends.	In my opinion...

c In small groups, say what you think about sentences 2–6. Try to use the Useful language phrases.

Are you seeing your grandparents this weekend?

No, I'm going to stay home. I'll probably see them next weekend.

1B Family life

1 VOCABULARY & SPEAKING

family

- a Look at some photos showing family members. What's happening in each one? What do you think the relationship is between the people?
- b With a partner, explain the difference between each pair.
- 1 a father and a parent
  - 2 a mother and a stepmother
  - 3 a brother and a brother-in-law
  - 4 a grandfather and a great-grandfather
  - 5 a nephew and a niece
  - 6 a child and an only child
  - 7 your immediate family and your extended family
- c Read Changing—for the better and try to guess what the missing percentages are. Choose from the list.

11% 43% 60% 67% 75%

- d (1 15)) Listen and check. Do any of the statistics surprise you? Which ones do you think would be very different if the survey was taken in your country?
- e Work in small groups. Say what you think and give reasons.

Do you think that...?

- families should have a meal together every day
- children should leave home as soon as they can afford to
- parents and their teenaged children should spend a lot of time together
- parents should be friends with their children on social networking sites, e.g., Twitter
- elderly parents should live with their children when they are too old to live alone

Useful language:

Giving your opinion (2)

We often use should + verb to say what we think is the right thing or a good thing (to do), e.g.,

I think families should have dinner together every day because...

I don't think parents should be friends with their children on Twitter because...

Changing – for the better?

Family life is changing in the US, but not in the way we might think. The results of several different US surveys expected to find that family relationships were suffering because of the decline in traditional family structures.

However, some of the results were very surprising...

of young adults under 25 and 10%

of adults 30-34 still live at home with their parents.

143%

of families eat together every day.

33%

say they have the TV on during dinner.

50%

think a new baby in the family brings more happiness.

2 GRAMMAR future forms

- a 1 16) Listen to three dialogues between different family members. Who is talking to who (e.g., brother to sister)? What are they talking about?
- b Listen again and match two sentences with each dialogue (1–3).
- A  I'll make you a cup of tea.                      D  I'm staying overnight there.
 B  You'll drive too fast.                              E  I'll drive really slowly.
 C  I'm not going to go to college yet.              F  It's going to be cold tonight.
- c With a partner, decide which sentence (A–F) is...
- a plan or intention       a prediction       an offer an arrangement       a promise
- d p.133 Grammar Bank 1B. Learn more about future forms, and practice them.

3 PRONUNCIATION sentence stress

🔍 Sentence stress

An important aspect of speaking English is stressing the words in a sentence that carry the information, and not stressing the other ones. This will help you to communicate better and to speak with good rhythm.

- a 1 21) Listen to the rhythm in these three dialogues.

- 1 A Are you coming home for dinner tonight?
 B No. I'm going out with my friends.
- 2 A What are you going to do in the summer?
 B We're going to rent a house with my sister and her husband.
- 3 A Do you think they'll have children soon?
 B I don't think so. Not for a few years anyway.

- b Practice them with a partner. Copy the rhythm.
- c Ask and answer the questions below. Give as much information as possible.

ARE YOU...?

- having dinner with your family tonight
- or is anyone in your family getting married soon
- doing something with a family member this week
- visiting a relative this weekend

ARE YOU GOING TO...?

- have a new nephew or niece soon
- have a big family get-together soon
- go on vacation with your family this year
- buy a present for a member of your family this month

DO YOU THINK...?

- the number of people getting divorced will go up or down in the future
- the birthrate will go up or down in your country
- anyone in your family will live to be 90 or more
- you will move away from (or back to) the area where your family lives

4 1 22) SONG Our House 🎵

of adults are happy and enjoy their lives without a lot of stress.

of adults are not happy and have a lot of stress or worry in their lives.

of teens feel close to their family.

of teens want to spend more time with their parents.

of parents stay connected with their children on social networks.

40%

of parents worry about what their kids post on social networks.

17%

of elderly women live with a relative such as a daughter, daughter-in-law, or grandchild.

5 READING

- a Which do you think has more advantages, being an only child, or having brothers and sisters? Why?
- b Work in pairs. A read The Younger Brother, B read The Only Child.
- c Tell your partner about 1 and 2 below. Whose childhood sounds happier?
- 1 other family members who are mentioned
  - 2 how the writer's experience as a child affects him / her now
- d Look at the highlighted words in the two texts. Try to figure out their meaning from the context. Then match them with definitions 1–12.
- 1 _____ adj ill
  - 2 _____ it's no surprise that
  - 3 _____ noun competition between two people
  - 4 _____ noun the time when you were a child
  - 5 _____ noun a meeting of people, e.g., family
  - 6 _____ noun people who are fully grown
  - 7 _____ adj knowing about or being conscious of something
  - 8 _____ noun a school where children can live during the year
  - 9 _____ verb think that somebody or something is important
  - 10 _____ verb divided something between two or more people
  - 11 _____ verb try to hurt somebody else
  - 12 _____ noun a group of friends

G each other

When brothers and sisters get older they value each other more.

Use each other to talk about an action between two people or groups of people, e.g., I don't get along very well with my father. We don't understand each other.

- e Talk to a partner. Do you have brothers and sisters, or are you an only child? Do you feel positive or negative about it?

Younger brother or only child?

HOW WAS IT FOR YOU?

THE YOUNGER BROTHER NOVELIST TIM LOTT

Rivalry between brothers is normal, but there was a special reason for the tension between us. I was very ill when I was born, and spent three months in the hospital with my mother. My brother did not see her at all during that time because he went to stay with an aunt. When our mother returned home, it was with a sick newborn baby who took all the attention. No wonder he hated me (although if you ask Jeff, he will say that he didn't – we remember things differently).

My brother and I were completely different. We shared the same bedroom, but he was neat, and I was really messy. He was responsible; I was rebellious. He was sensible; I was emotional. I don't have any positive memories of our childhood together, though there must have been good moments. Jeff says we used to play "Cowboys and Indians," but I only remember him trying to suffocate me under the bedcovers.

My relationship with Jeff has influenced my attitude toward my own four daughters. If the girls fight, I always think that the younger child is innocent. But the good news about brothers and sisters is that when they get older, they value each other more. Jeff is now one of my best friends, and I like and admire him greatly. For better or for worse, we share a whole history. It is the longest relationship in my life.

Adapted from The Times

THE ONLY CHILD JOURNALIST SARAH LEE

I went to boarding school when I was seven, and the hardest thing I found was making friends. Because I was an only child, I just didn't know how to do it. The thing is that when you're an only child, you spend a lot of your time with adults, and you're often the only child in a gathering of adults. Your parents go on living more or less the way they have always lived, only now you are there, too.

I found being an only child interesting because it gave me a view of the world of adults that children in a big family might not get. And I know it has, at least partly, made me the kind of person I am – I never like being one of a group, for example. If I have to be in a group, I will always try to go off and do something on my own, or be with just one other person – I'm not comfortable with being one of a gang.

My parents are divorced now and my mother lives in the US and my father in the UK. I feel very responsible for them – I feel responsible for their happiness. I'm the closest relative in the world to each of them, and I am very aware of that.

Adapted from The Guardian

6 VOCABULARY

adjectives of personality

- a Without looking back at The Younger Brother text, can you remember who was neat, responsible, and sensible and who was messy, rebellious, and emotional? Do you know what the adjectives mean? Would you use any of them to describe yourself?
- b ➤ p.153 Vocabulary Bank Personality.
- c Write down the first three adjectives of personality that come into your head. Don't show them to your partner. Now go to ➤ Communication Personality p.108.

7 PRONUNCIATION

word stress, adjective endings

- a (1 26)) Underline the stressed syllable in these multisyllable adjectives. Listen and check.

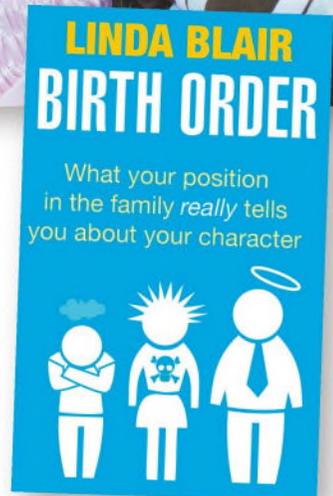

- 1 jea|lous an|xious am|bi|tious
ge|ne|rous re|bell|ious
- 2 so|cia|ble re|li|a|ble
- 3 re|spon|si|ble sen|si|ble
- 4 com|pe|ti|tive tal|ka|tive
ag|gre|ssive sen|si|tive
- 5 un|friend|ly in|se|cure
im|pa|tient i|mma|ture

- b Listen again and answer the questions.

- Is -ous pronounced /aus/ or /əs/?
- Is -able pronounced /əbl/ or /eɪbl/?
- Is -ible pronounced /əbl/ or /ɪbl/?
- Is -ive pronounced /əv/ or /ɪv/?
- Are -ous / -able / -ible / -ive stressed?
- Are un- / in- / im- stressed?

8 LISTENING & SPEAKING

- a What's your position in the family? Are you the oldest child, a middle child, the youngest child, or an only child?
- b (1 27)) Look at the cover of Linda Blair's book. Now listen to a journalist talking about it on a radio program. Complete the chart by writing four more adjectives of personality in each column.

Oldest children	Middle children	Youngest children	Only children sensible	relaxed	outgoing	self-confident

- c Compare with a partner. Then listen to the four sections one by one. Check your answers. What reasons or examples does the journalist give?
- d Look at the completed chart above. In pairs, say...

...if you think it is true for you – and if not, why not?

...if you think it is true for other people you know (your brothers and sisters, friends, etc.)

9 WRITING

- p.113 Writing A description of a person. Write a description of a friend you know well.

1 INTRODUCTION

a Look at the photos. Describe Jenny and Rob.

b  Watch or listen to Jenny and Rob talking. Fill in the blanks.

Jenny Zielinski and Rob Walker work for a <sup>1</sup> _____ called New York24seven. She's American, and he's <sup>2</sup> _____. Rob came to New York a few <sup>3</sup> _____ ago. He had met Jenny when she went to <sup>4</sup> _____ on a work trip. They got along very well, and he was offered a job for a month in <sup>5</sup> _____. Later he was offered a <sup>6</sup> _____ job. Jenny helped Rob <sup>7</sup> _____ an apartment, and they are enjoying life in the US, although Rob misses his friends and <sup>8</sup> _____.

 American and British English
apartment = American English
flat = British English

2 REACTING TO WHAT PEOPLE SAY

a  Watch or listen to Jenny introducing Rob to her parents. What bad news does Rob have for Jenny? What good news does Jenny have for her parents?

 American and British English
mom = American English
mum = British English

b Watch or listen again and mark the sentences T (true) or F (false). Correct the F sentences.

- 1 Rob left the chocolates at the office.
- 2 Rob's desk is usually very neat.
- 3 It's the second time that Rob has met Jenny's parents.
- 4 Sally has prepared a big dinner.
- 5 Jenny's new job is managing director.
- 6 Jenny is going to be Rob's manager.

c 1 30))) Look at some extracts from the conversation. Can you remember any of the missing words? Watch or listen and check.

- 1 Jenny Don't forget the chocolates.
Rob OK. Oh, _____!
Jenny I don't _____ it. Don't tell me you forgot them?
Rob I think they're still on my desk.
Jenny _____ kidding.
- 2 Jenny Mom, I'm really sorry – we bought you some chocolates, but we left them at the office.
Sally What a _____, _____ mind.
- 3 Jenny But I also have some good news.
Sally _____? What's that?
- 4 Sally So you've got a promotion? _____ fantastic!
Harry That's great _____!
- 5 Sally Let's go and have dinner.
Jenny What a _____ idea!

d 1 31))) Watch or listen and repeat the phrases in the chart below. Copy the rhythm and intonation.

REACTING TO WHAT PEOPLE SAY

What you say when you hear...

something surprising	You're kidding. I don't believe it.
something interesting	Really?
some good news	How fantastic! That's great news! What a great idea!
some bad news	Oh, no! What a pity. Never mind.

How + adjective, What + noun
We often use How + adjective or What + noun to respond to what people say.
How interesting! How awful! How amazing!

f  Communication How awful! How fantastic! A p.104 B p.109.

3 VIDEO HARRY FINDS OUT MORE ABOUT ROB

a 1 32))) Watch or listen to the after-dinner conversation. Does the evening end well or badly?

b Watch or listen again and answer the questions.

- 1 What school did Jenny go to?
- 2 Is Harry impressed by Rob's job? Why (not)?
- 3 What does Harry like doing in his free time?
- 4 Who are most of the photos in the dining room of?
- 5 Who are Miles Davis, John Coltrane, and Wynton Marsalis?
- 6 What surprises Harry about Rob?

c Look at the Social English phrases. Can you remember any of the missing words?

Social English phrases

- Harry How do you _____ your career?
Rob Not _____. I'm more of a writer.
Rob Oh, you know, interviews, reviews, _____ like that...
Rob I _____, I like photography.
Harry That's _____ most of them are of Jenny.
Harry How _____!
Rob Well, he's a really nice _____.
Harry Go _____, son!

d 1 33))) Watch or listen and complete the phrases.

e Watch or listen again and repeat the phrases. How do you say them in your language?

Can you...?

- react to good news, bad news, unexpected news, and interesting news
- introduce yourself and other people

FROM THE STREETS TO SUCCESS!

John DeJoria, an American billionaire businessman, owns several companies, including John Paul Mitchell Systems, a successful brand of hair products. However, DeJoria was not always wealthy. He was the second son of immigrant parents and grew up in a very poor area of Los Angeles, California. Before forming his hair product company with only $700, he was a street gang member for some of his youth, he then worked at low-paying jobs including encyclopedia salesman, janitor, and insurance salesman, and he was homeless twice. DeJoria's selfmade rise is an inspiring story.

As a child, you were fairly entrepreneurial, weren't you?

My first job, at 9 years old, was selling Christmas cards door-to-door. At 10 years old, my brother and I had paper routes. We got up at 4 o'clock a.m., folded the papers, and delivered them, and then got ready for school.

As you got older, you continued to work. Is that right?

The job that was one of the most influential experiences you can imagine was door-to-door selling encyclopedias. Doors literally slam in your face—maybe 30, 40 doors before the first customer will actually talk to you and let you in.

You've been homeless, haven't you?

Twice. Once, when I was about 22 years old. The other time was when I started John Paul Mitchell Systems in 1980. I wasn't getting along with my wife at the time. So I had left and had given her all the money. We had a backer for John Paul Mitchell Systems putting in a half-million dollars. That money was supposed to arrive that day. I never got a penny. So I just slept in my car. And I slept in my car for the first two weeks when I started the company. So we started with humble beginnings.

Do memories of the streets motivate you?

It sure makes you very appreciative of what you have in your life. Those who are homeless—like people with kids who are homeless—I really have a heart for. So I participate in a lot of charitable organizations that take the homeless off the streets.

What are the biggest problems you've faced in business?

The biggest problem is rejection. Any business you start, be ready for it. The difference between successful people and unsuccessful people is that the successful people do all the things the unsuccessful people don't want to do. When 10 doors are slammed in your face, go to door number 11, with a smile.

When did you know you had made it?

I was in business two years, and we were able to pay every single bill on time. We had a couple of thousand dollars in the bank—$4,000, to be exact. And we said, "Man we made it; it's all downhill now." It was really hard. It took a couple years.

What was the first thing you bought yourself at that point?

I went to a restaurant. This is the first time I said I'm going to order off the left side of the menu, not the right side. The right side is where the prices are. Carne asada, guacamole, whatever I wanted. I didn't even look at the prices. That, to me, was a pretty big deal.

TV host's Amazon

Helen Skelton hopes to become the first woman to kayak down the Amazon River.

Helen Skelton is a 26-year-old TV host of Blue Peter, a show for young people. She has never been afraid of a challenge. Last year, she became the second woman to complete the 78-mile Ultra Marathon in Namibia, running the three consecutive marathons in 23 hours and 50 minutes. But when Blue Peter decided to do something to raise money for the charity Sports Relief (which sponsors projects around the world), Skelton said that she wanted an even bigger challenge. So they suggested that she kayak 1,998 miles down the Amazon from Nauta in Peru to Almeirim in Brazil.

This is a very risky trip. There are no roads and no towns, only rainforest and the river (which is sometimes more than 24 miles wide and infested with crocodiles). If she gets sick, it will take around 11 hours to fly her to a hospital.

Adapted from The Telegraph website

Phone call 1

“Everything went wrong. I only managed half a day on Wednesday, the first day, and on Thursday we started late, so I'm already <sup>1</sup> _____. I've been suffering from the heat. It's absolutely <sup>2</sup> _____, and the humidity is 100% at lunchtime. I went the wrong way, and I had to paddle against the current. I was <sup>3</sup> _____! They asked me, 'Do you want to give <sup>4</sup> _____?' but I said, 'No!' Because I've also been having a wonderful time! There are pink dolphins – pink, not gray – that come close to the boat. I think that if I can do 62 miles a day, then I can make it.”

challenge

Helen has only been kayaking once before in her life, so she has been training four hours a day. Last week, she arrived at the Amazon in Peru. After two days of kayaking, she made the first of her phone calls.

Phone call 2

“I’ve been on the Amazon for a week now, and I’ve been paddling for six out of the seven days. The river is incredibly <sup>5</sup>_____, and it’s very hard to paddle in a straight line. The water is so brown that I can’t see my paddle once it goes under the surface. It looks like melted <sup>6</sup>_____. I start at 5:30 in the morning, and I <sup>7</sup>_____ for at least 10 hours, from 5:30 a.m. until dark, with only a short break for lunch. My hands have been giving me problems – I have big blisters. I now have them bandaged in white tape.

I’m usually on the water for at least 10 hours; it’s <sup>8</sup>_____ at times, and exciting at others. I listen to music on my iPod. I’ve been listening to Don’t Stop Me Now by Queen to inspire me! ”

Phone call 3

“I haven’t been <sup>9</sup>_____ very well this week. The problem is heat exhaustion. They say it’s because I haven’t been drinking enough water. I’ve been traveling 62 miles a day, which is my target. But yesterday after 52 miles, I was feeling <sup>10</sup>_____, and my head was aching, and I had to stop and rest. ”

CAN YOU UNDERSTAND THIS TEXT?

- a Read the article once. When did Bill Morgan's luck change?

When bad luck becomes good luck!

You've had a lot of bad luck in the past—a bad accident and some frightening health problems. Does that keep you from doing things in the future that involve luck, like buying a lottery ticket?

Anyone who has bought a ticket for the $500-million US Powerball jackpot can only dream of having as much luck as Australian truck driver Bill Morgan. In case you've never heard of Bill Morgan, his story actually begins with some very bad luck. First, he was almost crushed to death by a truck accident at work. The accident did not kill him, but it did leave Bill with a heart condition. When he was given medication for the heart condition, Bill had an allergic reaction that caused a powerful heart attack, which left him clinically dead for 14 minutes. After being revived by doctors, Morgan slipped into a coma for 12 days. During this time, his family was advised to unplug his life support system not once, but twice. Bill's luck began to change when he unexpectedly woke up from the coma without any permanent damage. Bill's bad luck was ending and his heartwarming story was just beginning.

After getting better, the 37-year-old Morgan found a new, higher-paying job, and asked his long-time girlfriend, Lisa Wells, to marry him. Lisa said yes. A week later, Morgan bought a scratch-off lottery ticket at his local newsstand. Bill scratched the ticket off and realized he had just won a brand new car! A local TV news station was so amazed by Bill's story that they sent a crew to do a human interest story on Bill and his lucky streak. The news crew thought it would be fun to re-create Bill's buying and scratching off the ticket right on camera. No one could have predicted what happened next. The ticket Bill bought for the re-enactment ended up being a $250,000 winner! And the best part is, it all happened on live TV (almost causing another heart attack).

- b Read the article again. Mark the sentences T (true), F (false), or DS (doesn't say).
- Bill had a dream about winning the lottery.
  - Bill's heart condition was caused by the accident.
  - Bill was in a coma for 14 days.
  - Bill's new job was in an office.
  - The news crew bought Bill's lottery ticket for the re-enactment.
  - Winning $250,000 did not cause Bill to have another heart attack.
- c Choose five new words or phrases from the article. Check their meaning and pronunciation, and try to learn them.

3 READING & LISTENING

- a You are going to read about a race that the car show Top Gear organized across the US state of Florida. Read the introduction and answer the questions.
- Where do they have to go from? Where to?
  - What are the three methods of transportation?
  - Which one do you think will be the fastest? Why?
  - In what order do you think the other two will arrive? Why?

TopGear Challenge

What's the fastest way to get across Florida?

On Top Gear, a very popular TV series about cars and driving, they decided to organize a race across Florida to find the quickest way to cross a busy state. The idea was to start from Miami, in the southwestern part of the tip of Florida, and to finish the race at the southern-most point of the US, Key West, a trip of 160 miles. Three possible forms of transportation were chosen: a motorboat, a car, and a combination of transportation. One of the show's hosts, Rutledge Wood, took the motorboat and his colleague Adam Ferrera took the car (a 2010 Lotus Evora). Tanner Foust took different kinds of transportation. His trip involved getting a taxi to the airport where he flew in a seaplane. Then he rented a scooter.

They set off from Jones Boat Yard on the Miami River...

Rutledge in the motorboat

His trip began in the Miami River. For the first hour there was a speed limit of 7 miles an hour because of the enforced no-wake zone in the river. Once the boat passed through Biscayne Bay and went under the Rickenbacker Bridge, he entered open water. Rutledge increased the boat's speed to over 90 miles an hour and made up the time he lost on the Miami River. Approximately 60 miles from the finish line, Rutledge was ahead of Adam and Tanner, but he had to stop for gas if he wanted to reach the finish line in Key West. In the 15 minutes it took to refuel the boat, Adam passed Rutledge in the car and took the lead. Once Rutledge was back on the open water, there were a lot of big waves, but he was able to pass Adam near Seven Mile Bridge just outside of Key West. Unfortunately for both Rutledge and Adam, Tanner flew over both of them in the seaplane at about the same time. Now Tanner was in the best position to win. Each racer was only miles from the finish line in Key West. Who would win?

Adam in the car

Adam started off OK. He wasn't driving fast because he was going the speed limit. However, after an hour, Adam decided that he was going too slowly. He increased his speed to 75 miles an hour—20 miles an hour over the speed limit. As Adam passed through a small town, he was stopped by the police! They were angry that Adam was speeding, and it meant that Adam lost many valuable minutes! Another problem Adam had was that his GPS was programmed to give directions in Spanish instead of English. This made finding his way to Key West difficult. As Adam finally approached Key West, the traffic was getting worse. He was worried about getting stuck so close to the finish line. Only three miles to go...

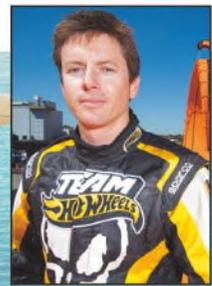

b Now read about the trips by motorboat and car. Do you still think your predictions in 3a are right?

c Read the two trips again and answer the questions with R (Rutledge) or A (Adam).

Who...?

- 1  went much faster in the later part of his trip
- 2  did something illegal
- 3  went more slowly in the later part of his trip
- 4  had to stop for more gas
- 5  couldn't understand the directions spoken by the GPS
- 6  was in the lead for most of the race d Look at the highlighted verbs and verb phrases. With a partner, figure out their meaning from context.

Tanner in the seaplane

e (29)) Now listen to what happened to Tanner. Follow his route on the map.

f (210)) With a partner, write down the order in which you now think the three people arrived. Now listen to what happened. What order did they arrive in?

5 PRONUNCIATION linking

Linking

We often link words together in English, especially when we speak fast. We link words:

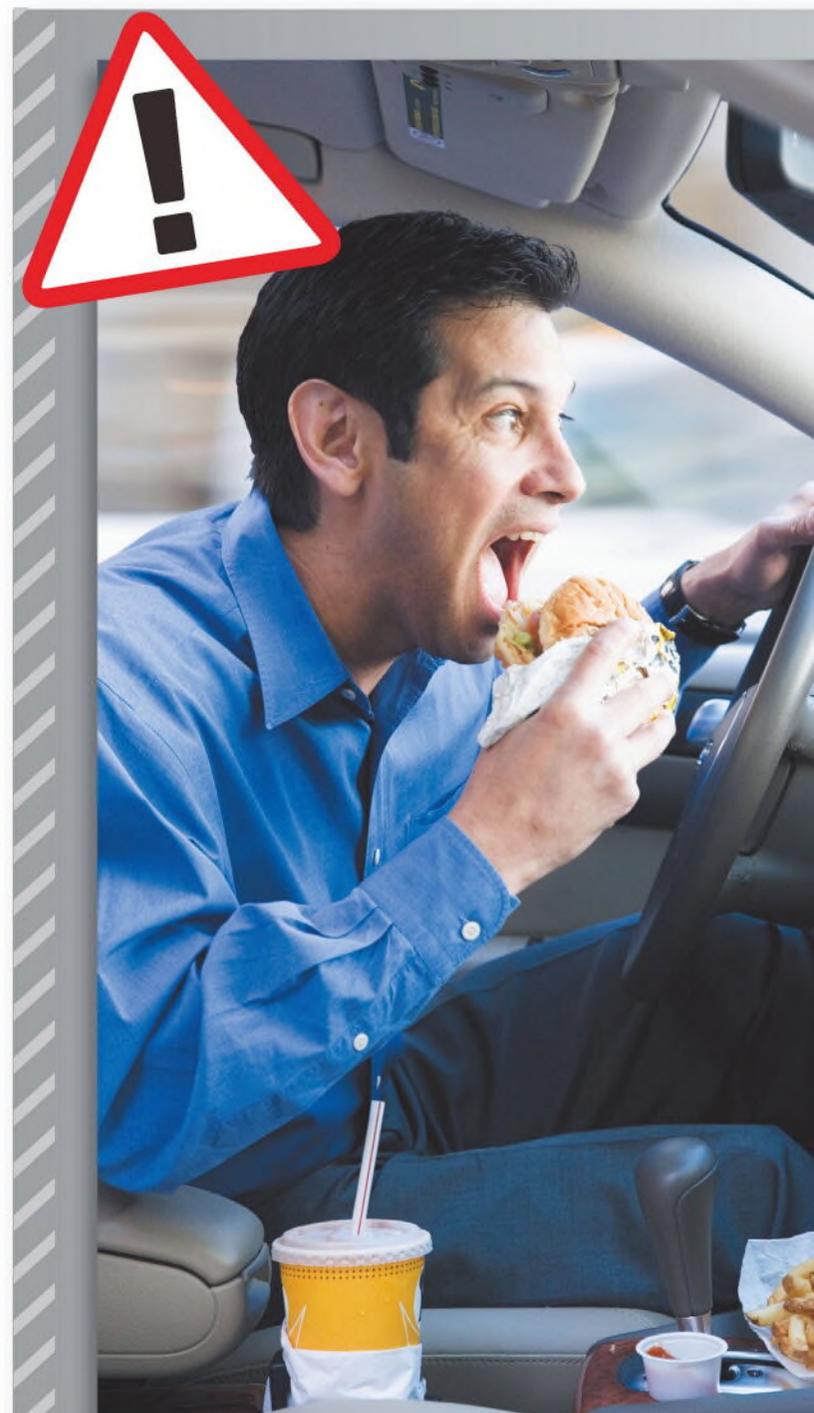

- when a word ends in a consonant sound and the next word begins with a vowel sound, e.g., more_exciting
- when a word ends in a consonant sound and the next word begins with the same consonant sound, e.g., the fastest_train
- when a word ends in /t/ or /d/ and the next word begins with /t/ or /d/, e.g., the biggest_dog

- a (2 14)) Listen and repeat the sentences. Try to link the marked words and copy the rhythm.
- Riding_a motorcycle_is more_exciting than driving.
  - The fastest_train_only takes_an_hour_and_a_half.
  - It's more_difficult_to drive_at_night than during the day.
  - My father's worse_at_driving than my mother.
  - The most_dangerous road_in my town_is the freeway.
- b Talk to a partner. For each group of three things compare them using the bold adjective, i.e., for 1 decide which is the most dangerous, and then compare the other two. Say why.
- dangerous: riding a bike; riding a motorcycle; driving
  - easy: learning to drive; learning to ride a bike; learning to ride a horse
  - relaxing: flying; traveling by train; driving
  - difficult: sleeping on a train; sleeping in a plane; sleeping on a bus
  - boring: being stuck in a traffic jam; waiting at an airport; waiting for a bus

I think riding a bike is the most dangerous because sometimes drivers don't notice bike riders. Riding a motorcycle is more dangerous than driving.

6 LISTENING

- a Read the text and then talk to a partner.
- Which of these things do you (or people you know) do when you are driving?
  - Which do you think are the most dangerous? Number them 1–3 (1 = the most dangerous).
  - Which one do you think is the least dangerous?
- b (2 15)) Now listen to a safety expert. Number the activities 1–7. Were your top three right?
- c Listen again for more information about each activity and why it is dangerous.

Which of these things is the most (and least) dangerous when you're driving a car?

A car magazine tested drivers in a driving simulator. The drivers had to drive in the simulator and do the things in the list below.

-  Eating or drinking
-  Talking on a cell phone (not hands free)
-  Setting or adjusting a GPS
-  Listening to your favorite music
-  Listening to music you don't know
-  Sending or receiving text messages
-  Doing your hair or putting on makeup

7 SPEAKING

- a Look at the statements below and decide whether you agree or disagree. Check (✓) the ones you agree with and put an X next to the ones you disagree with. Think about your reasons.

Slow drivers cause more accidents than fast drivers.

People who drink and drive should lose their driver's license for life.

Speed cameras do not stop accidents.

Drivers who are over 70 are as dangerous as young drivers.

Bike riders should have to wear helmets.

The minimum age for riding a motorcycle should be 25.

The speed limit on freeways should be lower.

- b In groups, give your opinions about each statement. Try to use expressions from the box. Do you agree?

 Agreeing and disagreeing

I agree / don't agree	with this.
	with Juan.
I think / don't think	you're right.
	that's
I completely / totally	agree.

3B Stereotypes – or are they?

1 READING & SPEAKING

- a In pairs, answer the questions.
- Are you a talkative or a quiet person?
  - Who is...?
    - the most talkative person in your family
    - the most talkative person you know
  - Do you think that, generally speaking, women are more talkative than men?
  - What topics do...?
    - men talk about more than women
    - women talk about more than men

- b Look at the definition of stereotype. Then A read the article Men talk just as much as women and B read the article Gossip with the girls. Find answers to questions 1–4.

stereotype /ˈsteriətaɪp/ noun a fixed idea about a particular type of person or thing, which is often not true in reality. ► stereotype verb In advertisements, women are often stereotyped as housewives.

- What was the stereotype that the researchers wanted to investigate?
  - Where was the research done?
  - How was the research done?
  - What did the research show?
- c In pairs, tell each other about your article, using questions 1–4 to help you.
- d Now read both articles again and look at the highlighted words and phrases, which are commonly used in articles about research. Match them with definitions 1–10.
- In fact* _____ adverb really
  - _____ verb make less
  - _____ usually do it
  - _____ adverb a little bit
  - _____ linking word used to connect or contrast two facts
  - _____ verb say that something is true
  - _____ as said or shown by somebody
  - _____ verb include several different things in addition to the ones mentioned
  - _____ adverb nearly
  - _____ not completely believed, doubted
- e Which of the two pieces of research do you think is...?
- more credible
  - more important
  - more surprising

Men talk just as much as women – can it really be true?

Research by psychologists at the University of Arizona has shown that the stereotype that women talk more than men may not be true. In the study, hundreds of college students were fitted with recorders, and the total number of words they used during the day was then counted.

The results, published in the New Scientist, showed that women speak about 16,000 words a day and men speak only slightly fewer. In fact, the four most talkative people in the study were all men.

Professor Matthias Mehl, who was in charge of the research, said that he and his colleagues had expected to find that women were more talkative.

GOSSIP WITH THE GIRLS? JUST PICK ANY ONE OF FORTY SUBJECTS

Women are experts at gossiping – and they often talk about trivial things, or at least that's what men have always thought. However according to research done by Professor Petra Boynton, a psychologist at University College London, when women talk to women their conversations are not trivial at all, and cover many more topics (up to 40) than when men talk to other men.

Women's conversations range from health to their houses, from politics to fashion, from movies to family, from education to relationship problems. Almost everything, in fact, except soccer. Men tend to talk about fewer subjects, the most popular being work, sports, jokes, cars, and women.

However, they had been skeptical of the common belief that women use three times as many words as men. This idea became popular after the publication of a book called The Female Brain (2006) whose author, Louann Brizendine, claimed that “a woman uses about 20,000 words per day, whereas a man uses about 7,000.”

Professor Mehl accepts that many people will find the results difficult to believe. However, he thinks that this research is important because the stereotype, that women talk too much and men keep quiet, is bad not only for women but also for men. “It says that to be a good male, it’s better not to talk – that silence is golden.”

Professor Boynton interviewed over 1,000 women for her study. She also found that women move quickly from one subject to another in conversation, whereas men usually stick to one subject for longer periods of time.

Professor Boynton also says that men and women talk for different reasons. In social situations, women use conversation to solve problems and reduce stress, while men talk to each other to laugh or to exchange opinions.

5 READING & LISTENING

- a Do you think it is a stereotype that women are better than men at taking care of small children? Do you know any men who stay at home and take care of their children? How do they manage?
- b Look at an illustration based on a new book about taking care of young children. Can you name some of the things in the picture?

- c Read the beginning of an article about the book. Why did Neil Sinclair write it? In what way is it different from other books about raising children?

- d (23)) Listen to two men talking in the park about the book and mark the sentences T (true) or F (false).

- 1 Miranda is older than Stephen.
  - 2 Miranda's father slept badly the night before.
  - 3 Stephen's father recommends sleeping pills.
  - 4 Stephen's father hasn't read Commando Dad.
  - 5 He likes the website because he enjoys reading about other men's experiences.
  - 6 Stephen's father really likes the book because it helps him and makes him laugh.
  - 7 In Commando Dad, BT means Baby Trooper and Base Camp means the kitchen.
  - 8 The author of Commando Dad thinks that women are only better than men when the baby is small.
- e Listen again and correct the wrong information.
- f Do you think it's a good idea to have a book and a website on childcare especially for men? Why (not)?

For six years Neil Sinclair served as a commando in the army. He had been in a lot of dangerous situations, but nothing prepared him for the day when he brought his first baby home from the hospital. "I put the car seat containing my two-day-old son Samuel down on the floor and said to my wife, 'What do we do now?'"

When he left the army, Sinclair and his wife agreed that he would stay at home and take care of the baby, while his wife went back to work.

"I have done a lot of crazy things, but when I put that baby down I thought: I have a tiny baby, and he is crying. What does he want? What does he need? I did not know. It was one of the most difficult days of my life."

It was at that moment that Sinclair had an idea. "I found myself thinking how much easier life would be if I had a basic training manual for my baby, like the manual you get when you join the army. I realized that somebody needed to write such a manual, and who better to write it than me? I had been a commando, but I was now a stay-at-home dad. I was the man for the job."

His book, Commando Dad: Basic Training, is a set of instructions that explains with military precision and diagrams how new fathers should approach the first three years of their child's life to become a first-rate father.

4A Failure and success

1 GRAMMAR can, could, be able to a If at first you don't succeed, try, try, try again is a well-known saying. What does it mean?

b More recently other people have invented different ways of continuing the saying. Which one do you like best?

- If at first you don't succeed,
- ...give up
- ...blame your parents
- ...destroy all the evidence that you tried
- ...do it the way your mother told you to
- ...skydiving is not for you c Look at the definition of be able to. What other verb is it similar to?

be able to (do something) to have the ability, opportunity, time, etc., to do something: Will you be able to come to the meeting next week?

d Read about three people who have tried (but failed) to learn something, and complete the texts with A–G.

- A I was able to
- B Not being able to
- C I just wasn't able to
- D I will never be able to
- E I would suddenly be able to
- F I've always wanted to be able to
- G we would never be able to e Read the article again. Why did they have problems? Have they completely given up trying? Have you ever tried to learn something and given up? Why?

f Look at phrases A–G again. What tense or form is be able to in each one? What tenses or forms does can have?

g ➤ p.138 Grammar Bank 4A. Learn more about can, could, and be able to, and practice them.

h ➤ Communication Guess the sentence A p.105 B p.109.

I've never been able to...

I really wanted to learn. Maybe it was because of that scene in one of the very first James Bond movies, where a beautiful actress comes out of the ocean looking fabulous, with oxygen tanks on her back – I could see myself looking just like her. So, two years ago I booked a vacation that included a week-long intensive course. On the first day of the course, I was incredibly excited. First, we had two hours of theory, and then we went into the ocean to put it into practice. But as soon as I went under the water, I discovered that I suffered from claustrophobia. <sup>1</sup>_____ do it. After about half an hour I gave up. Every evening for the rest of my vacation I had to listen to my scuba-diving classmates talking about all the wonderful things they had seen that day on their diving excursions. <sup>2</sup>_____ join in the conversation was very frustrating.

I still love swimming and snorkeling, but I think that I have to accept that <sup>3</sup>_____ scuba dive.

Bea, the US

<sup>4</sup> _____ dance salsa, and when I was working in Ecuador there were free classes, so I joined. But the art of salsa is to keep your arms still and move your hips, and I just couldn't do it. When I hear music my arms start moving, but my hips don't. After about ten hours of classes <sup>5</sup> _____ do the basic steps, but I was dancing like a robot! I didn't give up, but soon everyone in the class was dancing, and I was just slowly moving from side to side and counting out loud "one, two, three, four." It was a little embarrassing. I was sure that one day <sup>6</sup> _____ do it – but that never happened. I can still remember the first two steps, and I still try to dance when I hear a salsa tune – as long as nobody is watching!

Sean, Canada

I love manga – Japanese comics – and I tried to learn Japanese, but I found it incredibly difficult, and I gave up after two years. I think Asian languages, which have symbols instead of words, are extremely hard to learn for people who are more used to Roman letters. Also my teacher, a Japanese woman, didn't speak Spanish very well, which didn't help! She was a very charming woman, but she was a little disappointed with us, and you could see that she thought that <sup>7</sup> _____ learn. However, one day she invited us to dinner and gave us some delicious traditional Japanese food, and since then I often go to Japanese restaurants. So I learned to love the food, if not to speak the language!

Joaquin, Argentina

2 PRONUNCIATION sentence stress

a (236))) Listen and repeat the sentences. Copy the rhythm.

- 1 I'd love to be able to ski.
- 2 We won't be able to come.
- 3 I've never been able to dance.
- 4 She hates not being able to drive.

b (237))) Listen again. Make new sentences with the verbs or verb phrases you hear.

))) I'd love to be able to ski. Ride a horse

↳ I'd love to be able to ride a horse.

))) We won't be able to come. Park

↳ We won't be able to park.

3 SPEAKING

a Look at the topics. Choose two or three and think about what you could say for them.

Something you've tried to learn, but have never been able to do well.

Something you learned to do after a lot of effort.

Something you can do, but you'd like to be able to do better.

Something new that you would like to be able to do.

Something you are learning to do and that you hope you'll soon be able to do well.

Something you think all young people should be able to do before they leave school.

b Work with a partner. Tell him / her about the things you chose in a. Give reasons or explanations for each one.

↳ I've never been able to ski, and now I don't think I'll ever learn. I always wanted to learn, but I don't live near mountains...

4 VOCABULARY -ed / -ing adjectives

a Look at the photo. Complete the sentences with bored or boring.

- The movie was _____.
- The audience was _____.

-ed and -ing adjectives

Many adjectives for feelings have two possible forms, either ending in -ed or in -ing, e.g., frustrated and frustrating.

We use the adjective ending in -ed for the person who has the feeling (I was very frustrated that I couldn't scuba dive). We use the adjective ending in -ing for a person or situation that produces the feeling (I couldn't join in the conversation, which was very frustrating).

b Read the information box. Then complete the adjectives with -ed or -ing.

- What do you think is the most excit___ sport to watch?
- What's the most amaz___ scenery you've ever seen?
- What music do you listen to if you feel depress___?
- Have you ever been disappoint___ by a birthday present?
- Which do you find more tir___, speaking English or listening to English?
- What's the most embarrass___ thing that's ever happened to you?
- Are you scare___ of spiders?
- Do you feel very tir___ in the morning?
- Who's the most bor___ person you know?
- Do you ever get frustrat___ by technology?

c 2 38)) Listen and check. Underline the stressed syllable in the adjectives.

d Ask and answer the questions in pairs. Ask for more information.

5 READING & SPEAKING

a Do you know anybody who speaks more than two languages? Which languages do they speak? How did they learn?

b 2 39)) You are going to read an article about Alex Rawlings, who speaks 11 languages. Before you read, match the languages below with words 1–11. Then listen and check.

- |   |                                  |                                 |
|---|----------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> English              | <input type="checkbox"/> Greek   | <input type="checkbox"/> German |

| <input type="checkbox"/> Catalan              | <input type="checkbox"/> Italian |                                 |

c Read the article. Which language(s)...?

- did he learn as a child
- is he studying in college
- does he like best
- is he planning to learn next
- did he wish he had been able to speak when he was a child
- was the first one he taught himself
- did he find the most difficult

1 Hallo

2 Guten Tag

He's only 20, but he can speak eleven languages

In a competition run by a dictionary publisher, college student Alex Rawlings was named the most multilingual student.

The German and Russian student, who is only 20 years old, can speak 11 languages fluently. In a video for a news website, he demonstrated his skills by speaking in all of them, changing quickly from one to another. Rawlings said that winning the competition was "a bit of a shock." He explained, "I saw the competition advertised, and I heard something about a free iPad. I never imagined that it would generate this amount of media attention."

As a child, Rawlings' mother, who is half Greek, used to speak to him in English, Greek, and French, and he often visited his family in Greece.

He said that he has always been interested in languages. "My dad worked in Japan for four years, and I was always frustrated that I couldn't speak to the kids because of the language barrier." After visiting Holland at the age of 14, he decided to learn Dutch with CDs and books. "When I went back I could talk to people. It was great."

He taught himself many of the languages with "teach yourself" books, but also by watching movies, listening to music, and traveling to the countries themselves.

d Look at the highlighted words and phrases related to language learning, and figure out their meaning from the context. Then ask and answer the questions with a partner.

- 1 Can you or anyone in your family speak another language fluently?
- 2 Do you know any basic phrases in any other languages?
- 3 Do you have a personal link to another country or language? Why?
- 4 Have you ever traveled to another country and felt that there was a real language barrier?
- 5 What other languages would you like to be able to speak? Why?

Of all the languages he speaks, Rawlings says that Russian, which he has been learning for a year and a half, is the hardest. He said, “There seem to be more exceptions than rules!” He added, “I especially like Greek because I think it’s beautiful and, because of my mother, I have a strong personal link to the country and to the language.”

“Everyone should learn languages, especially if they travel abroad. If you make the effort to learn even the most basic phrases wherever you go, it instantly shows the person you’re speaking to that you respect his or her culture. Going around speaking English loudly and getting frustrated with people is tactless and rude.”

The next language Rawlings hopes to learn is Arabic, but “only once I’ve finished my degree and got some more time on my hands. For now I need to concentrate on my German and Russian, so I can prepare for my finals.”

Glossary

Afrikaans a language that has developed from Dutch, spoken in South Africa

Catalan a language spoken in parts of northern Spain and southern France finals the last exams that students take in college

e Read the grammar information box. Then complete 1–5 with a reflexive pronoun.

6 Reflexive pronouns

He taught himself many of the languages with “teach yourself” books.

We use reflexive pronouns (myself, yourself, himself, herself, itself, ourselves, yourselves, themselves) when the object of a verb is the same as the subject, e.g., He taught himself Russian. = He was his own teacher.

We also use reflexive pronouns to emphasize the subject of an action, e.g., We painted the kitchen ourselves.

- 1 I always test _____ on new vocabulary. It’s a good way to remember it.
- 2 My uncle built the house _____. It took him three years.
- 3 This light is automatic. It turns _____ on and off.
- 4 Did you fix the computer _____? Good job!
- 5 My sister’s so vain! Everytime she passes a mirror, she looks at _____ in it!

6 LISTENING & SPEAKING

a (2 40)) You’re going to listen to six advanced students of English giving a tip that has helped them to learn. Listen once and complete their tip. Then compare your notes with a partner.

TIP 1: Change the language to English on all the _____ you have, for example on your _____, or _____, or _____.

TIP 2: Do things that you _____, but in English.

TIP 3: Try to find an English-speaking _____ or _____.

TIP 4: Get a _____ app for your phone.

TIP 5: Book yourself a _____ in an _____.

TIP 6: Listen to as many _____ as possible in English, and then _____ them.

b Listen again. Try to add more details about each tip.

c Talk to a partner.

- Do you already do any of these things?
- Which do you think is the best tip?
- Which tip could you easily put into practice? Try it!
- What other things do you do to improve your English outside class (e.g., visit chat websites, listen to audio books)?

Do I have to bring a present?

Yes, I think you probably should.

1 VOCABULARY & SPEAKING

phone language

- a (2 41)) Listen and match the phone sentences with the sounds.
- A  He's dialing a number.
  - B  She's texting / messaging a friend.
  - C  She just hung up.
  - D  She's choosing a new ringtone.
  - E  He's calling back.
  - F  She left a message on his voicemail.
  - G  The line's busy.

- b Can you explain what these are?

Skype a screensaver silent / vibrate mode quiet zones instant messaging

- c Use the questionnaire to interview another student. Ask for more information.

2 GRAMMAR

modals of obligation: must, have to, should

- a Read the extract from Debrett's guide to cell phone etiquette. Then talk to a partner about questions 1–4.
- 1 Do you agree with what Debrett's says?
  - 2 Do you ever do any of these things?
  - 3 Are they a problem where you live?
  - 4 Are there any other things people do with their phones that annoy you?

Debrett's, a well-known publisher, has been producing guides on how people should behave since the 1900s, including Debrett's Etiquette and Modern Manners and The English Gentleman. Nowadays it still offers advice on what (and what not) to do in social situations.

YOU AND YOUR PHONE

-  What brand is your phone? How long have you had it?
-  Would you like to get a new one? Why (not)?
-  What ringtone do you have?
-  What do you use your phone for (apart from talking)?
-  Where and when do you usually turn off your cell phone?
-  Have you ever...?
  - lost your phone
  - sent a message to the wrong person
  - forgotten to turn your phone off (with embarrassing consequences)

DEBRETT'S

guide to cell phone etiquette

- 1 Think what your ringtone says about you
If you're sometimes embarrassed by your ringtone, it's almost certainly the wrong one and you should change it.
- 2 When in doubt, use silent or vibrate mode
It may surprise your companions when you suddenly answer an invisible, silent phone, but at least they won't have to listen to your ringtone.
- 3 Take notice of who is around you
Make sure your conversation is not disturbing other people. Intimate conversations are never appropriate in front of others.

3 PRONUNCIATION & SPEAKING

silent consonants, linking

- a Each of the words in the list has a silent consonant or consonants. With a partner, cross out the silent letters.

should talk wrong listen half dishonest knowledge design whole rhythm doubt foreign calm island

- b 2 46))) Listen and check.

- c 2 47))) Listen and repeat the sentences. Try to copy the rhythm and to link the marked words.

- 1 You must turn off your phone on a plane.
- 2 You should only call him in an emergency.
- 3 We have to leave at eleven.
- 4 You must not open other people's emails.
- 5 You shouldn't talk loudly on a cell phone.

- d Read the definition of manners. Then make sentences using should / shouldn't for something that you think is a question of manners, and with must / must not / have to for something that is a law or rule.

manners /'mænərz/ pl noun a way of behaving that is considered acceptable in your country or culture

- turn off your phone in a theater
- talk loudly on your phone in public
- send text messages when you are driving
- reply to a message on your phone while you are talking to somebody face-to-face
- play noisy games on a phone in public
- use your phone at a gas station
- video people on your phone without their permission
- set your phone to silent mode on a train
- send or receive texts at the movies
- turn off your phone on a plane during take-off and landing

- b Read the text again. Match the highlighted phrases with their meaning. Two of the phrases match the same meaning.

- A You don't need to do this. It isn't necessary.
B Don't do this. It isn't allowed / permitted.
C It's necessary or required to do this.
D It's a good idea to do this.

- c ► p.139 Grammar Bank 4B. Learn more about must, have to, and should, and practice them.

4 Respect quiet zones

You must not use your phone in quiet zones on trains or in hotels. That is the reason why they exist.

5 Never shout

Your phone is not a megaphone. You don't have to shout. And don't shout because you think reception is poor. It won't make any difference.

6 People with you deserve more attention than those at the end of a phone

Wherever possible, turn off your phone in social situations and at mealtimes, or put it on vibrate. If you have to keep your phone on because you are expecting an important call, apologize in advance.

7 Don't continue on with phone conversations when you are in the middle of something else

This is especially true if you are in banks, stores, etc. It is insulting not to give the people who are serving you your full attention.

8 Think about where you are calling from

Don't make (or receive) calls in inappropriate places. Put your phone on vibrate in meetings, movies, etc. If you must take a call in the car, use a hands-free set.

4 READING

- a Imagine that you have been invited to visit your partner's family. Think of three things that you feel would be bad manners to do.
- b Read the article. Did Heidi do any of those things? What did she do wrong (according to Mrs. Bourne)? Whose side would you take?

News online

Two sides to every story

By NEWS ONLINE Reporter

Everyone knows it can be difficult to get along with your in-laws, but for 29-year-old Heidi Withers, it may now be impossible. Heidi was invited to spend the weekend with her fiancé Freddie's family at their house. But soon after they returned home, Heidi received a very nasty email from Carolyn Bourne, Freddie's stepmother, criticizing her manners.

Here are a few examples of your lack of manners:

- When you are a guest in another person's house, you should not declare what you will and will not eat – unless you are allergic to something.
- You should not say that you do not have enough food.
- You should not start before everyone else.
- You should not take extra helpings without being invited to by your host.
- You should not lie in bed until late morning.
- You should have sent a handwritten note after the visit.
You have never written to thank me when you have stayed.

Heidi was shocked, and immediately sent the email on to some of her close friends. Surprised and amused, the friends forwarded it to other people, and soon the email had been posted on several websites, with thousands of people writing comments about the mother-in-law.

Adapted from the Daily Mail website

- c Find words or phrases in the article that mean...

- 1 _____ noun a man to whom you are going to be married
- 2 _____ adj unpleasant
- 3 _____ verb saying what is bad or wrong with somebody or something
- 4 _____ noun not having enough of something
- 5 _____ noun a person who you invite to your house
- 6 _____ noun a person who receives a visitor
- 7 _____ verb sent an email or message you received to another person

🔍 should have

We use should have to talk about something that happened in the past that you think was wrong, e.g., You should have written me a thank-you letter. = you didn't write to me. I think this was wrong.

- d Now read some of the comments that were posted on the Internet. Write H next to the ones that support Heidi and C next to the ones that support Carolyn.

- 1 Mrs. Bourne says Heidi should have sent a handwritten thank-you note... however, she sends this letter by email! We are in the 21st century. Nobody sends handwritten letters anymore. 07/13/2011 6:52 p.m.
- 2 Why do we hear nothing about Freddie's role in all this? Why didn't he prepare Heidi? He must know what his stepmother is like. He could also have prepared his family by telling them about any eating problems his girlfriend has. 07/13/2011 4:25 p.m.
- 3 The email was a private communication. I don't think Heidi should have sent it on to her friends. It makes me think that Mrs. Bourne might be right about her bad manners. 07/13/2011 12:40 p.m.
- 4 The stepmother seems to be extremely jealous of Heidi. Maybe she wants to keep Freddie all to herself. If I were Heidi, I would leave him. 07/12/2011 10:15 a.m.
- 5 The mother-in-law may have a few good points, but she should have spoken to Heidi face-to-face, and not sent her an email. 07/11/2011 6:50 p.m.
- 6 I think that the one with the extremely bad manners is Mrs. Bourne. 07/11/2011 2:10 p.m.
- 7 Mrs. Bourne, I agree with every word you say. Young people just don't have any manners nowadays. I hope Freddie comes to his senses and finds someone better. 07/11/2011 9:48 a.m.

- e Write your own comment. Then compare with a partner. Do you agree?
- f ➤ Communication The big day p.105. Read about what Heidi and Freddie did next.

5 LISTENING

- a (2 48)) Listen to Caroline Halloran, who is dating Jason Win, talking about the differences between Burmese manners and American manners. What was their problem when they first met? How have they managed to solve their differences about manners?
- b Listen again and mark the sentences T (true) or F (false).
- 1 Jason thought Caroline was rude when she asked him to hang out with her.
  - 2 In Burma it's OK to spend time alone with someone at the beginning of a romantic relationship.
  - 3 Burmese culture is not as open as American culture is.
  - 4 Jason wrote long responses to Caroline's Facebook romantic posts.
  - 5 Caroline wants Jason to stop bragging about their relationship to his friends and family.
  - 6 Jason sometimes gets confused about good and bad manners in the US.
  - 7 Caroline and Jason don't argue about manners anymore.
- c What would people from your country do in these situations?

6 SPEAKING

In groups, talk about each thing in the Good Manners? questionnaire. Do you think it's good manners, bad manners, or not important / not necessary. Why?

I think it's very rude to criticize the food if you are in somebody's house.

I think it depends. It's OK if you know the person very well or if it's a member of your family...

CAN YOU UNDERSTAND THIS TEXT?

- a Read the article once. What kind of concert was it? What happened?

Turn it off!

Something historic happened at the New York Philharmonic on the evening of January 10, 2012, about an hour into Mahler's Ninth Symphony. During the beautiful fourth movement, an audience member's cell phone loudly rang.

And rang. And rang again. It was the kind of marimba riff we've all heard on the street from a stranger's phone.

From my seat in Row L, I could see the horrified discomfort of the other audience members from their body language. We all wondered whether the conductor Alan Gilbert would react, and how. Suddenly there was silence. The orchestra had stopped playing. Mr. Gilbert had halted the performance. He turned to the man, who was seated in the front row, and said:

"Are you going to turn it off? Will you do that?"

There was some "discussion" between the conductor and the cell phone owner, but we couldn't hear it.

In the Avery Fisher Hall, many members of the audience stood and demanded that the man leave the hall. They were so furious that I could have imagined them dragging him from his seat on to the stage, tying him to a stake, and setting him alight!

When the "power off" button on the man's phone had finally been located and put to use, Mr. Gilbert turned to the audience. "Usually, when there's a disturbance like this, it's best to ignore it," he said. "But this time I could not allow it."

The audience applauded as if Mahler himself, the orchestra's conductor from 1909 to 1911, had suddenly been resurrected onstage. Mr. Gilbert neither smiled nor acknowledged the cheers. Instead he turned to the orchestra, instructing the players to resume, several bars back from the point at which he had stopped the performance. Just before, he raised his baton and turned again to the audience and said, this time with a smile, "We'll start again." A few seconds later, the fourth movement resumed.

Mr. Gilbert's brave decision that night brought new music to the Philharmonic.

- b Read the text again and answer the questions.

- In what part of the symphony did the phone ring? What kind of ringtone was it?
- Did the owner turn it off immediately?
- How did the audience react a) to the phone ringing, and b) to what the conductor did?
- Did the audience really drag the man onto the stage?
- Did Mr. Gilbert restart the music from the same place where he had stopped?
- Does the journalist think Mr. Gilbert made the right decision?

- c Choose five new words or phrases from the text. Check their meaning and pronunciation and try to learn them.

If I bounce the ball five times...

MATTHEW SYED writes about sports superstitions

1 Tennis players are strange people. Have you noticed how they always ask for three balls instead of two; how they bounce the ball the same number of times before serving, as if any change from their routine might result in disaster?

2 _____, the number 1 female tennis player. When she was once asked why she had played so badly at the French Open she answered, "I didn't tie my shoe laces right, and I didn't bounce the ball five times, and I didn't bring my shower sandals to the court with me. I didn't have my extra dress. I just knew it was fate; it wasn't going to happen."

3 _____. Goran Ivanišević, Wimbledon champion in 2001, was convinced that if he won a match, he had to repeat everything he did the previous day, such as eating the same food at the same restaurant, talking to the same people, and watching the same TV shows. One year this meant that he had to watch Teletubbies every morning during his Wimbledon campaign. "Sometimes it got very boring," he said.

4 _____. As we were watching tennis player Andy Murray play the fourth set at Wimbledon, my wife suddenly got up and went to the kitchen. "He keeps losing games when I'm in the room," she said. "If I go out now, he'll win."

5 _____. Last year, a survey of British soccer supporters found that 21 percent had a lucky charm (anything from a scarf to a lucky coin), while another questionnaire revealed that 70 percent of Spanish soccer fans performed pre-match rituals (like wearing "lucky" clothes, eating the same food or drink, or watching games with the same people).

6 _____. She returned, and he won the fifth. I laughed at her, and then remembered my soccer team, Spurs, who were losing 1–0 in the Carling Cup. "If I leave the room now, Spurs will score," I told my kids, after 27 minutes of overtime. I left the room and they scored. Twice.

Taking a short cut

On April 21, 1980, 23-year-old Rosie Ruiz was the first woman to cross the finish line at the Boston Marathon. She finished the race in the third-fastest time for a female runner (two hours, 31 minutes, 56 seconds). But when the organizers congratulated Rosie after the race, they were surprised because she wasn't sweating very much. Some spectators who were watching the race told them what had really happened. During the last half mile, Rosie suddenly jumped out of the crowd and sprinted to the finish line. The marathon organizers took Ruiz's title away and awarded it to the real winner, Jacqueline Gareau. It was later discovered that three months earlier, Rosie had also cheated in the New York City Marathon where she had taken the subway!

5B Love at Exit 19

1 READING

- a How do you think people usually meet friends and partners nowadays? Number the phrases 1–5 (1 = the most popular). Then compare with a partner. Do you agree?
- A  at work
  - B  at school or college
  - C  on the Internet (e.g., on forums, on social networking sites, etc.)
  - D  in a cafe, club, etc.
  - E  through friends
- b (3 15)) Read and listen to an article about Sonya Baker and Michael Fazio. Why did their relationship almost never happen?

♥ Love at Exit 19

He was a tollbooth collector, and she was a soprano who sang in Carnegie Hall. Their eyes met at Exit 19 of the New York State Thruway, when he charged her 37¢. The romance that followed was even less likely than the plot of an opera!

Sonya Baker was a frequent commuter from her home in the suburbs to New York City. One day, when she was driving to an audition, she came off the Thruway and stopped at the tollbooth where Michael Fazio was working. She talked with him as she paid to go through, and thought he was cute. For the next three months, they used to exchange a few words as she handed him the money, and he raised the barrier to let her pass. “It was mostly ‘What are you doing today? Where are you going?’” she said. They learned more about each other, for example that Sonya loved Puccini and Verdi, while Michael’s love was the New York Yankees. But their conversations suddenly came to an end when Michael changed his working hours. “He used to work during the day,” said Sonya, “but he changed to night shifts.” Although Michael still looked out for Sonya’s white Toyota Corolla, he did not see her again for six months.

When Michael’s working hours changed back to the day shift, he decided to put a traffic cone in front of his lane. He thought, “It will be like putting a candle in a window.” Sonya saw it, and their romance started up again. “I almost crashed my car on various occasions,” she said, “trying to cross several lanes to get to his exit.” Finally, she found the courage to give Michael a piece of paper with her phone number as she passed through the toll. Michael called her and for their first date they went to see the movie Cool Runnings, and then later they went to an opera, La Bohème, and to a Yankees game.

They are now married and living in Kentucky, where Sonya is a voice and music professor at Murray State College and Michael runs an activity center at a nursing home. It turned out that she had given him her number just in time. A short while later, she moved to New Jersey and stopped using the New York State Thruway. “I might never have seen him again,” she said.

Glossary

- a tollbooth a small building by the side of a road where you pay money to use the road

  - 7 My grandmother just bought a sports car.
  - 8 My parents met when they were only 15.
  - 9 I just won $2,000 in the lottery!
- b Listen to B's sentences and react with a phrase.
- c Tell B some real (or invented) news about you for B to react. React to B's news.

5A OTHER SPORTS SUPERSTITIONS Student A

- a Read about Sydney Crosby and Kolo Touré.

SIDNEY CROSBY never calls his mother on a game day, even if it's her birthday. He believes that he gets injured on the days he calls his mother before a game.

When KOLO TOURÉ played for Arsenal, he always insisted on being the last player to leave the dressing room after the half-time break. This was never usually a problem. However, in one game when William Gallas, his teammate, was injured and needed treatment at half-time during a match, Touré stayed in the dressing room until Gallas had been treated. This meant that Arsenal had to start the second half with only nine players.

- b Now cover the text and tell B about their superstitions from memory.
- c Listen to B telling you about Jason Terry and Alexander Wurz's superstitions.
- d Together decide which superstition you think is a) the strangest b) the most impractical.

2B ARE YOU HUNGRY? Student A

- 1 Is the water cold? (Yes, it's freezing.)
- 2 Was the movie good? (Yes, it was fantastic.)
- 3 Were you tired after the exam? (Yes, I was exhausted.)
- 4 Was the room dirty? (Yes, it was filthy.)
- 5 Is it a big house? (Yes, it's enormous.)
- 6 Were you surprised? (Yes, I was amazed.)
- 7 Are you sure? (Yes, I'm positive.)

- b Respond to B's questions. Say Yes, it's... / I'm..., etc. + the strong form of the adjective that B used in the question. Remember to stress the strong adjective.

Are you afraid of flying? } Yes, I'm terrified.

- c Repeat the exercise. Try to respond as quickly as possible.

3A I'M A TOURIST - CAN YOU HELP ME? Student A

- a Think of the town / city where you are, or the nearest big town. You are a foreign tourist, and you are planning to get around using public transportation. Ask B questions 1–5. Get as much information from B as you can.

- 1 What kind of public transportation is there?
- 2 What's the best way for me to get around the city?
- 3 Can I rent a bike? Are there any bicycle lanes?
- 4 Is it easy to find taxis? How expensive are they?
- 5 What's the best way to get to the airport from the center of town? How long does it take?

- b Switch roles. B is a foreign tourist in the town who has rented a car. You live in the town. Answer B's questions and give as much information as you can.

4A GUESS THE SENTENCE Student A

- a Look at sentences 1–6 and think of the correct form of be able to + a verb. Don't write anything yet!

- 1 I'm sorry I won't _____ to your party next weekend.
- 2 It was August, but we _____ a hotel without any problems.
- 3 I used to _____ a little Japanese, but I can't now.
- 4 I love _____ in bed late on the weekend.
- 5 Will you _____ the work before Saturday?
- 6 I've never _____ fish well.

- b Read your sentence 1 to B. If it isn't right, try again until B tells you, "That's right." Then write it. Continue with 2–6.
- c Now listen to B say sentence 7. If it's the same as your sentence 7 below, say "That's right." If not, say "Try again" until B gets it right. Continue with 8–12.

- 7 It must be great to be able to speak a lot of languages.
- 8 I won't be able to see you tonight. I'm too busy.
- 9 My grandmother can't walk very well, but luckily we were able to park just outside the restaurant.
- 10 They haven't been able to find an apartment yet. They're still looking.
- 11 You should be able to do this exercise. It's very easy.
- 12 We really enjoy being able to eat outside in the summer.

PE3 COULD YOU DO ME A FAVOR?

Students A+B

- a Look at the verb phrases below. Choose two things you would like somebody to do for you. Think about any details, e.g., what kind of dog it is, how much money you need, etc.
- take care of (your children, your dog for the weekend, your apartment while you're away, etc.)
  - lend you (some money, their car, etc.)
  - give you a ride (home, to the mall, etc.)
  - help you (with a problem, with your homework, to paint your apartment, to choose some new clothes, etc.)
- b Ask as many other students as possible. Be polite (Could you do me a big favor? Would you mind...? Do you think you could...?) and explain why you want the favor. How many people agree to help you?

4B THE BIG DAY Students A+B

Read a newspaper article about what happened at Heidi and Freddie's wedding. Do you think they behaved well or badly? Why?

News online

Two sides to every story What happened next...

By NEWS ONLINE Reporter

Yesterday Heidi Withers married Freddie Bourne in a $40,000 ceremony at St. Mary the Virgin Church. It was followed by a reception at a 900-year-old castle. However, there was no sign of Carolyn, Freddie's stepmother, the woman who was ridiculed for the email she sent Heidi. She and her husband Edward, Freddie's father, were not invited.

Heidi arrived almost 25 minutes late for the ceremony, which was due to begin at 2:45 p.m. Perhaps, as Carolyn suggested was her habit, she had been in bed until the last possible minute. She arrived at the church with security guards holding umbrellas to prevent onlookers from seeing her, and with her head covered. This is a well-known tactic for celebrities, but for a 29-year-old secretary it seemed, in the words of one onlooker, "a bit ridiculous."

Edward and Carolyn admitted to being disappointed at not receiving an invitation. They spent the weekend on vacation with friends. They have had no contact with the couple since the saga began, and did not even know the date of the wedding.

5A OTHER SPORTS SUPERSTITIONS

Student B

- a Read about Jason Terry and Alexander Wurz.

JASON TERRY, an American basketball player, wears the colors of his team's opponents the night before a game. If the team he's playing the next day wears black and white, then Terry wears black and white to bed the night before. He's been doing this since his playing days in college.

ALEXANDER WURZ, an Austrian racing driver, used to race with odd-colored shoes, the left one red and the right one blue. It came about when he lost a shoe before a big race and had to borrow one of a different color. After winning the race, he decided it was a lucky omen.

- b Now listen to A telling you about Sydney Crosby and Kolo Touré's superstitions.
- c Cover the text and tell B about Jason Terry and Alexander Wurz's superstitions from memory.
- d Together decide which superstition you think is a) the strangest b) the most impractical.

1B PERSONALITY Students A+B

Read the explanation and compare with a partner. Do you agree with your results?

The activity you have just done is a personality test. The first adjective you wrote down is how you see yourself, the second is how other people see you, and the third is what you are really like.

2A SPENDER OR SAVER? Students A+B

Check your results. Then compare with a partner. Do you agree with your results?

Mostly a answers

You can't be trusted with your own money! You definitely need someone to help you to manage your finances better. Why not speak to an organized friend about how to plan? This will help you to make your money go further and stop you from getting into debt.

Mostly b answers

Although you understand how to manage your money, sometimes you need to be a little more organized. Try setting yourself a weekly or monthly budget, and then stick to it. You will then know how much money you have, what you spend it on, and how much you can save.

Mostly c answers

Congratulations! It sounds like you really know what you are doing when it comes to managing your money. You know how important it is to keep track of your spending and are responsible with your money.

PE1 HOW AWFUL! HOW FANTASTIC! Student B

- a Listen to A's sentences and react with a phrase, e.g., You're kidding, Oh, no!, etc.
- b Read your sentences 1–9 for A to react.
- 1 I failed my driving test yesterday.
  - 2 I lost my wallet on the way to class.
  - 3 I met George Clooney at a party last week.
  - 4 I think I saw a ghost last night.
  - 5 I won a salsa competition last weekend.
  - 6 I'm going to be on a new edition of Big Brother.
  - 7 My dog died yesterday.
  - 8 My grandfather has a black belt in karate.
  - 9 My uncle is 104.
- c Tell A some real (or invented) news about you for A to react. React to A's news.

2B ARE YOU HUNGRY? Student B

- a Respond to A's questions. Say Yes, it's... / I'm..., etc. + the strong form of the adjective that A used in the question. Remember to stress the strong adjective.

Is the water cold?  Yes, it's freezing.

- b Ask A your questions. He / She responds with the phrase in parentheses.

- 1 Are you afraid of flying? (Yes, I'm terrified.)
- 2 Is the soup hot? (Yes, it's boiling.)
- 3 Was the teacher angry? (Yes, he / she was furious.)
- 4 Is the bedroom small? (Yes, it's tiny.)
- 5 Are the children hungry? (Yes, they're starving.)
- 6 Is the chocolate cake good? (Yes, it's delicious.)
- 7 Was she happy with the present? (Yes, she was excited.)

- c Repeat the exercise. Try to respond as quickly as possible.

3A I'M A TOURIST - CAN YOU HELP ME?

Angela Vernon

Hi Sofia,

I hope you're well.

I'm looking for an au pair to look after Austin and Melissa, and I remembered your Peruvian friend Marisol, who I met last summer. She said she might be interested in working in the US as an au pair, so I thought I would write and ask her. The thing is, I don't really know her, so before I write and suggest it, could you tell me a little about her (age, personality, etc., and what she likes doing) so that I can see if she would fit in with the family? Please be honest!

Angela

Sofia Lugo

Hi Angela,

Marisol is one of my best friends, so of course I know her very well. She's 22, and she just graduated from college with a degree in economics, but she doesn't have a job yet, and I'm sure she would be interested in going to the US. Her parents are both doctors, and she has two younger brothers. She gets along very well with them, and they are a very close family.

Marisol's an intelligent girl and very hardworking. She can be really shy at first, but when she gets to know you she's incredibly friendly. She loves children - she often takes care of her brothers - so she has a lot of experience, and she's also very responsible.

In her free time she likes going to the movies, listening to music, and she's also very good at fotography - she always has her camera with her. She's really independant and happy to do things on her own, so you won't have to worry about taking her to places.

The only problem with Marisol is that she's a little forgetfull... she sometimes loses things, like her keys, or her phone. Also, to be honest her English isn't great, but I'm sure she'll improve very quickly. I think Austin and Melissa will love her.

I hope this helps! Let me know if you need anything else.

Love,

Sofia

- b The computer has found five spelling mistakes in Sofia's email. Can you correct them?
- c Read both emails again. Then cover them and answer the questions from memory.

  - 2 What does she like doing in her free time?
  - 3 What negative things does Sofia say about Marisol?
  - 4 Does Sofia think Marisol will get along with Angela's family?
- d Look at the highlighted expressions we use to modify adjectives. Put them in the correct place in the chart.

Marisol is _____ _____ _____ _____ forgetful.

Useful language: describing a person

He's really / very, etc. + positive adjective (e.g., friendly, outgoing, etc.)

She's a little + negative adjective (e.g., messy, shy, etc.)

He likes / loves / doesn't mind + verb + -ing

She's happy to + base form

He's good | with children

| at making new friends

e Imagine you received Angela's message asking about a friend of yours. Write an email to answer it. Plan what you're going to write using the paragraph headings below. Use the Useful language box and Vocabulary Bank Personality p.153 to help you.

Paragraph 1	age, family, work / study
Paragraph 2	personality (good side)
Paragraph 3	hobbies and interests
Paragraph 4	any negative things?

f Check your email for mistakes (grammar, vocabulary, punctuation, and spelling).

2 AN INFORMAL EMAIL

- a Marisol went to the US and stayed for six months with a couple, Angela and Matt, working as an au pair. After going back to Peru, she sent them an email. Look at the list of things she says in her email. Number them in a logical order 1–6.
- She promises to send some photos.
  - She thanks them for her stay and says how much she enjoyed it.
  - She talks about what she's been doing recently.
  - She apologizes for not writing before.
  - She thanks them again and invites them to stay.
  - She talks about the nice things that happened when she was with them.
- b Now read Marisol's email and check your answers to a.
- c Correct eight mistakes in the email (grammar, vocabulary, punctuation, and spelling).

Useful language: informal emails

Beginnings

Hi + name (or Dear + name if you want to be a little more formal)

Sorry for not writing sooner, but...

Thank you / Thanks (so much) for (your letter, having me to stay, etc.)...

It was great to hear from you...

Endings

That's all for now.

Hope to hear from you soon. / Looking forward to hearing from you soon.

(Give my) regards / love to...

Best wishes / Love (from)

P.S. (when you want to add a short message at the end of an email) I've attached a photo...

- d Imagine you have some American friends in the US, and you stayed with them for a week last month. Write an email to say thank you. Plan what you're going to say. Use 1–6 in a and the Useful language box to help you.
- e Check your email for mistakes (grammar, vocabulary, punctuation, and spelling).

To: Angela [angelav1970@yahoo.com]
Subject: Thanks

Hi Angela,

I'm really sorry for not writing sooner, but I am very busy since I got back!

Thanks for a wonderful six months. I loved being in Colorado, and I had a great time. I also think my english got a little better... dont you think?

It was so nice to take care of Austin and Melissa. I thought they were adorable, and I think we had a fantastic time together. I have really good memories – for example our travel to Denver and the amusement park there!

I've been a little stressed these last few weeks, because I've started working at a restaurant, while I look for a full-time job. Be a waitress is very hard work, but I can now afford to rent an apartment with Sofia and two other friends, and I'm saving for to buy a car! I've also spent a lot of time with my family – my brothers have changed so much over the past six months!

I've had several messages from Austin and Melissa since I've been back! Please tell them from me that I miss them and that I send them some photos very soon.

That's all for now. Thanks again for everything. And I hope you know you're welcome in Lima any time – my family would love to meet you. Summer here is usually beautiful.

Hope to hear from you soon. Give my regards to Matt!

Best wishes,

Marisol

P.S. I've attached a photo I took of me with the kids. I hope you like it!

3 AN ARTICLE FOR A MAGAZINE

- a Look at the four forms of public transportation in New York City. Which one do you think is probably...?
- the least expensive
  - the healthiest
  - the best if you want to see the sights of New York City
  - the safest to use at night

- b Read an article from an online magazine for foreign students about public transportation in New York City and check your answers to a. Then answer these questions from memory.
- 1 What can you use a MetroCard for?
  - 2 What kind of money do you have to use if you want to pay cash to ride a New York City bus?
  - 3 What's the difference between a taxi and car service?
- c Read the article again and fill in the blanks with a preposition from the list.

around at in next to on (x2) on the top of with

Useful language: transportation in your town
 You can buy MetroCards at many places in New York City.
 You need a ticket or card before you get on the subway.
 (You = people in general)

Comparatives and superlatives:
 Buses aren't as quick as trains.
 Riding a bike is the cheapest way to get around.

- d Write an article about transportation in your nearest town or city for foreign students. Plan what headings you're going to use and what to say about each form of transportation.
- e Check your article for mistakes (grammar, vocabulary, punctuation, and spelling).

Transportation in New York City

The Subway This is the quickest way to get <sup>1</sup>around the city, and there are many subway stations all over New York City. The cheapest way to use the subway is to get a MetroCard. This is like a phone card. You put money on it, and you can add more when you need to. Then you use it every time you get <sup>2</sup>_____ the subway. You can buy MetroCards at subway stations, newsstands, and even from your employer.

Buses They can be quicker than the subway if there isn't too much traffic. The easiest way to use the buses, like the subway, is to just use your MetroCard. You can buy a single-ride ticket from machines <sup>3</sup>_____ some, but not all bus stops. You can also pay cash (but no pennies and no paper money) when you get <sup>4</sup>_____ the bus. Traveling <sup>5</sup>_____ a private double-decker bus is also a good way to see New York City.

Bikes Bikes are starting to become more popular in New York City, especially <sup>6</sup>_____ tourists and people who want to travel to parts of the city, like the waterfront areas, where subways don't usually go. One of the newest bike-share programs is called Citi Bike. When you rent a bike from Citi Bike, you get a key that looks like a flash drive. You can use the key at any Citi Bike kiosk and get a bike to ride for the day.

Taxis and Car Service New York City's yellow taxis are expensive, but they are comfortable, and the taxi drivers know shortcuts through the city to get you to places quickly. You usually tell the driver where you want to go when you get <sup>7</sup>_____ the taxi. Car service is made up of normal cars that work for a company, and you have to call them ahead of time to pick you up. They are more expensive than taxis. Taxis and car service are probably the safest way to travel late <sup>8</sup>_____ night.

4 TELLING A STORY

- a A magazine asked its readers to send in stories of a time they got lost. Read the story once. Why did Bethany and her husband get lost? What else went wrong?
- b Read the story again and complete it with a connecting word or phrase from the list.

although as soon as because but instead of so then when

Useful language: getting lost
 We were going in the wrong direction.
 We took the wrong exit / turn.
 We turned right instead of left.
 We didn't know where we were.
 We had to turn around and go back in the opposite direction.

- c Write about a trip where you got lost (or invent one) to send to the magazine. Plan what you're going to write using the paragraph headings below. Use the Useful language to help you.

Paragraph 1	When was the journey? Where were you going? Who with? Why?
Paragraph 2	How did you get lost? What happened?
Paragraph 3	What happened in the end?

- d Check your story for mistakes (grammar, vocabulary, punctuation, and spelling).

DISASTROUS TRIPS!

We asked you to tell us about a time you got lost. Bethany from the US wrote to us...

This happened a few years ago. My husband and I had rented a house in Galicia for a summer vacation. We were going to first drive to Tarragona, to stay for a few days with some friends, and <sup>1</sup> then drive from Tarragona to Galicia.

The first part of the trip was fine. We were using our new GPS for the first time, and it took us right to the door of our friends' house. Three days later, <sup>2</sup> _____ we continued our trip, we put in the name of the small town in Galicia, Nigrán, which was our final destination. We started off, obediently following the instructions, but after a while we realized that <sup>3</sup> _____ driving west toward Lérída, we were going north. In fact, soon we were very close to Andorra. I was sure we were going in the wrong direction, <sup>4</sup> _____ my husband wanted to do what the GPS was telling us – it was his new toy! It was only when we started seeing mountains that even he admitted this couldn't be the right way. <sup>5</sup> _____ we stopped, got out an old map, and then turned around! We had wasted almost two hours going in the wrong direction!

It was an awful trip <sup>6</sup> _____ as well as getting lost, when we were almost at our destination we had another problem. We stopped for a coffee, but <sup>7</sup> _____ we got back onto the road, we realized that we had left our dog under the table in the cafe! For the second time that day we had to turn around and go back. Luckily, the dog was still there! However, <sup>8</sup> _____ the beginning of our trip was a disaster, we had a wonderful vacation!

Listening

- A I usually have meat or seafood. Usually shrimp or something as an appetizer and then maybe lamb for the main course.
- B I often have ready-made vegetable soups that you just have to heat up – in fact, they're the only vegetables I ever eat! And I usually have a couple of frozen pizzas in the freezer for emergencies. I don't really order take-out when I'm on my own, but if I'm with friends in the evening, we sometimes order Chinese food for dinner.
- C Eggs and soda. I have eggs for breakfast at least twice a week, and I drink a couple of cans of soda every day.
- D If I'm feeling down, chicken soup, with nice big pieces of chicken in it. It's warm and comforting. Uh, I usually have a banana before going to the gym. If I know I'm going to have a really long meeting, I usually have a coffee and a cupcake because I think it will keep me awake and give me energy.
- E Fruit – cherries, strawberries, raspberries, and apples. Vegetables – peppers, tomatoes, and cucumbers. The only thing I really don't like is zucchini. I can't even stand the smell of it.

Part 1

Interviewer What was your favorite food when you were a child?

Steve Well, I always liked unusual things, at least things that most English children at the time didn't like. For instance, when I was six or seven my favorite things were snails, oh and prawns with garlic.

Interviewer Funny things for a six-year-old English boy to like!

Steve Well, the thing is my parents liked traveling and eating out a lot, and I first tried snails in France, and the prawns, my first prawns I had at a Spanish restaurant in the town where we lived.

Interviewer So you were interested in Spanish food right from the start. Is that why you decided to come to Spain?

Steve Partly, but of course, I suppose like a lot of British people I wanted to see the sun! The other thing that attracted me when I got here were all the fantastic ingredients. I remember going into the market for the first time and saying "Wow!"

Interviewer When you opened your restaurant, how did you want it to be different from typical Spanish restaurants?

Steve Well, when I came to Spain, all the good restaurants were very formal, very traditional. In London then, the fashion was for informal places where the waiters wore jeans, but the food was amazing. So I wanted a restaurant a bit like that. I also wanted a restaurant where you could try more international food, but made with some of these fantastic local ingredients. For example, Spain's got wonderful seafood, but usually here it's just grilled or fried. I started doing things in my restaurant like cooking Valencian mussels in Thai green curry paste.

Interviewer What do you most enjoy cooking?

Steve What I most enjoy cooking, I think, are those traditional dishes which use quite cheap ingredients, but they need very long and careful cooking, and then you turn it into something really special... like a really good casserole, for example.

Interviewer And is there anything you don't like cooking?

Steve Maybe desserts. You have to be very very precise when you're making desserts. And that's not the way I am.

Part 2

Interviewer What's the best thing about running a restaurant?

Steve I think the best thing is making people happy. That's why even after all this time I still enjoy it so much.

Interviewer And the worst thing?

Steve That's easy, it has to be the long hours. This week for example, I'm cooking nearly every day. We usually close on Sundays and Mondays, but this Monday is a public holiday, when lots of people want to eat out, so we're open.

Interviewer Seu Xerea is in all the British restaurant guides now. Does that mean you get a lot of British customers?

Steve Yes, we get a lot of British people, especially at the weekends, but then we get people from other countries, too.

Interviewer And are the British customers and the Spanish customers very different?

Steve Yes, I think they are. The British always say that everything is lovely, even if they've only eaten half of it. The Spanish, on the other hand, are absolutely honest about everything. They tell you what they like; they tell you what they don't like. I remember when I first opened, I had sushi on the menu, which was very unusual at that time, and I went into the dining room, and I said to people, "So what do you think of the sush?" And the customers, who were all Spanish, said "Oh, it was awful! It was raw fish!" Actually, I think I prefer that honesty, because it helps us to know what people like.

Interviewer What kind of customers do you find difficult?

Steve I think customers who want me to cook something in a way that I don't think is very good. Let's see, a person who asks for a really well-done steak, for instance. For me that's a difficult customer. You know, say, "I want steak," so I give them a really really well-done steak, and then they say "It's tough." And I think well, of course it's tough. It's well done! Well-done steak is always tough.

Interviewer People say that the Mediterranean diet is very healthy. Do you think people's eating habits in Spain are changing?

Steve Well, I think they are changing – unfortunately I think they're getting worse. People are eating more unhealthily.

Interviewer How do you notice that?

Steve I see it with, especially with younger friends. They often eat in fast-food restaurants, they don't cook... and actually the younger ones come from a generation where their mothers don't cook either. That's what's happening now, and it's a real pity.

127)))

Interviewer This morning we're talking about family and family life, and now Danielle Barnes is going to tell us about a book she has just read called Birth Order by Linda Blair. So what's the book about, Danielle?

Danielle Well, it's all about how our position in the family influences the kind of person we are. I mean whether we're first born, a middle child, a youngest child, or an only child. Linda Blair argues that our position in the family is possibly the strongest influence on our character and personality.

Interviewer So tell us more about this, Danielle. What about the oldest children in a family, the first-born?

Danielle Well first-born children often have to take care of their younger brothers and sisters, so they're usually sensible and responsible as adults. They also tend to be ambitious, and they make good leaders. Many US Presidents and British Prime Ministers, including for example Abraham Lincoln were oldest children.

On the negative side, oldest children can be insecure and anxious. This is because when the second child was born, he or she lost some of his or her parents' attention and maybe he or she felt rejected.

Interviewer That's very interesting. What about the middle child?

Danielle Middle children are usually more relaxed than oldest children. That's probably because the parents are more relaxed themselves by the time the second child arrives. They're usually very sociable – the kind of people who get along with everybody, and they're also usually sensitive to what other people need. Now, this is because they grew up between older and younger brothers and sisters. For the same reason they are often good at sorting out arguments, and they're always sympathetic to the ones on the losing side, or in general to people who are having problems. On the other hand, middle children can sometimes be unambitious, and they can lack direction in life.

Interviewer And youngest children?

Danielle I was very interested in this part of the book because I'm a youngest child myself. It seems that youngest children are often very outgoing and charming. This is the way they try to get the attention of both their parents and their older brothers and sisters.

They are often more rebellious, and this is probably because it's easier for the youngest children to break the rules – by this time their parents are more relaxed about discipline. On the negative side, youngest children can be immature and disorganized, and they often depend too much on other people. This is because they have always been the baby of the family.

Interviewer Fascinating. And finally, what about only children?

Danielle Only children usually do very well at school because they have a lot of contact with adults. They get a lot of love and attention from their parents, so they're typically self-confident. They're also independent because they're used to being by themselves. And because they spend a lot of time with adults they're usually very organized.

Interviewer I'm an only child myself and people always think that I must be spoiled. Is that true, according to Linda Blair?

Danielle Well, it's true that only children can sometimes be spoiled by their parents because they're given everything they ask for. Also, on the negative side, only children can be selfish, and they can also be impatient, especially when things go wrong. This is because they're not used to sorting out problems with other brothers and sisters.

Jenny My name's Jenny Zielinski. And New York is my city. I live here and I work for a magazine, NewYork24seven.

Rob My name's Rob Walker. I'm a writer on NewYork24seven. You can probably tell from my accent that I'm not actually from New York. I'm British, and I came over to the States a few months ago.

Jenny I met Rob in London when I was visiting the UK on a work trip. He was writing for the London edition of 24seven. We got along well right away. I really liked him.

Rob So why am I in New York? Because of Jenny, of course. When they gave me the opportunity to work here for a month, I took it immediately. It gave us the chance to get to know each other better. When they offered me a permanent job I couldn't believe it!

Jenny I helped Rob find an apartment. And now here we are. Together in New York. I'm so happy. I just hope Rob's happy here, too.

Rob I really loved living in London. A lot of my friends and family are there, so of course I still miss it. But New York's a fantastic city. I've got a great job and Jenny's here, too.

Jenny Things are changing pretty fast in the office. We have a new boss, Don Taylor. And things are changing in my personal life, too. This evening's kind of important. I'm taking Rob to meet my parents for the very first time. I just hope it goes well!

Jenny I can't believe we got here so late.

Rob I'm sorry, Jenny. I had to finish that article for Don.

Jenny Don't forget the chocolates.

Rob OK.

Rob Oh, no!

Jenny I don't believe it. Don't tell me you forgot them!?

Rob I think they're still on my desk.

Jenny You're kidding.

Rob You know what my desk's like.

Jenny Yeah, it's a complete mess. Why don't you ever tidy it?

Rob We could go and buy some more.

Jenny How can we get some more? We're already late!

Jenny Hi, there!

Harry You made it!

Jenny Sorry we're late. So, this is my mom and dad, Harry and Sally. And this, of course, is Rob.

Rob Hello.

Sally It's so nice to meet you at last.

Harry Yes, Jenny's finally decided to introduce you to us.

Sally Come in, come in!

Jenny Mom, I'm really sorry – we bought you some chocolates, but we left them at the office.

Sally What a pity. Never mind.

Harry Yeah, don't worry about it. We know what a busy young woman you are. And your mom has made way too much food for this evening anyway.

Sally Oh, Harry.

Jenny But I also have some good news.

Sally Really? What's that?

Jenny Well, you know we have a new boss? He's still new to the job and needs support, so today he made me the managing editor of the magazine.

Sally So you've got a promotion? How fantastic!

Harry That's great news! Hey, does that mean Jenny's going to be your boss, Rob?

Rob Uh... yes, I guess so.

Jenny Well, not exactly. I'm a manager, but I'm not Rob's manager.

Sally Let's go and have dinner.

Jenny What a great idea!

Harry You know, our Jenny has done incredibly well, Rob. She's the first member of our family to study at Harvard. She's a very capable and ambitious young woman.

Jenny Oh, Dad.

Rob No, it's true, Jenny.

Harry But what about you, Rob? How do you see your career? Do you see yourself going into management?

Rob Me? No. Not really. I'm more of a... a writer.

Harry Really? What kind of things do you write?

Rob Um... you know, interviews, reviews... things like that... and I'm doing a lot of work for the online magazine...

Jenny Rob's a very talented writer, Dad. He's very creative.

Harry That's great, but being creative doesn't always pay the bills.

Jenny You know, my dad's a very keen photographer. He took all of these photos.

Harry Oh, Rob won't be interested in those.

Rob But I am interested. I mean, I like photography. And I think I recognize some of these people...

Harry That's because most of them are of Jenny.

Rob But there are some great jazz musicians, too. That's Miles Davis... and isn't that John Coltrane? And that's Wynton Marsalis.

Harry You know about Wynton Marsalis?

Rob Know about him? I've interviewed him!

Harry How incredible! I love that guy. He's a hero of mine.

Rob Well, he's a really nice guy. I spent a whole day with him, chatting and watching him rehearse.

Harry Really? I want to hear all about it.

Sally Have a cookie, Rob.

Harry Go ahead, son! Sally makes the best cookies in New York!

- 1 I'm a spender, I think. I try to save, but something always seems to come along that I need to buy, and I end up broke. I can get by with very little money for myself when I need to, but I don't seem to be good at holding on to it. Also, if my kids ask to borrow some money, I always say yes.
- 2 I would say that I'm a spender. I spend money on things like concerts or on trips because I like having the experience and the memories. I know that I should spend my money on things that last, or save for the future, but I don't want to miss all those good things that are happening right now.
- 3 I consider myself a spender. I don't have much money, but when I do have some there's always something I need or want to spend it on. I love computers and computer games, so I buy things to make sure my computer is always up to date. I know it's not very sensible, but it's important to me.
- 4 That's hard to say. I can save money if there's something I really, really want, but usually my money disappears as soon as I get it. I get some money from my parents every week, so I have just enough money to go to the movies with my friends and to buy something for myself, maybe a book or a DVD or some makeup... I usually end up buying something. But, for example, if I want to go on a trip with my friends, then I can make an effort and save some money for a few weeks.
- 5 Since I was little, I've always saved about a third of the money I get. I would never think of spending all the money I have. You could say that I'm careful about money. When I want to buy something that's expensive, I don't use a credit card. I take the money out of the bank so I never have to worry about getting into debt.
- 6 I'd say a saver, definitely. I like having some money saved in case I have an emergency. I also think very carefully before I buy something, and I always make sure it's the best I can buy for that price. But I wouldn't describe myself as cheap. I love buying presents for people, and when I do spend my money I like to buy nice things, even if they're more expensive.

Part 1

Interviewer Jane, you're an elementary school teacher, and a writer. What kind of books do you write?

Jane Well, I write books for children who are learning English as a foreign language.

Interviewer How long have you been a writer?

Jane Uh, let me see, since 1990. So for about 22 years.

Interviewer Tell us about the trip that changed your life. Where were you going?

Jane Well, it was in the summer of 2008, and my family – my husband and I and our three children, decided to have a holiday of a lifetime, and to go to Africa. We went to Uganda and Rwanda, to see the mountain gorillas. It was something we'd always wanted to do. Anyway, about half way through the trip, we were in Uganda, and we were traveling in a lorry when the lorry broke down. So the driver had to find a mechanic to come and help fix it.

Interviewer And then what happened?

Jane Well, as soon as we stopped, lots of children appeared and surrounded us. I could see some long buildings quite near, so I asked the children what they were, and they said in English "That's our school." And I was very curious to see what a Ugandan school was like, so I asked them to show it to me.

Interviewer What was it like?

Jane I was shocked when I first saw it. The walls were falling down, the blackboards were broken, and there weren't many desks. But the children were so friendly, and I asked them if they would like to learn a song in English. They said yes, and I started teaching them some songs, like Heads, Shoulders, Knees, and Toes a song I've used all over the world to teach children parts of the body. Almost immediately the classroom filled up with children of all ages, and they all wanted to learn. I was just amazed by how quickly they learned the song!

Interviewer Did you meet the teachers?

Jane Yes, we did, and the headmaster, too. He explained that the school was called St. Josephs, and it was a community school for orphans, very poor children and refugees. I asked him what the school needed. I thought that he might say "we need books, or paper," and then later we could send them to him. But actually he said "What we need is a new school." And I thought yes, of course he's right. These children deserve to have better conditions than this to learn in. So when I got back home, my husband and I, and other people who were with us on the trip decided to set up an organization to get money to build a new school.

1 46)))

Part 2

Interviewer So Adelante África was born. Why did you decide to call it that?

Jane Well, we wanted a name that gave the idea of Africa moving forward, and my husband is Spanish, and he suggested Adelante África, because in Spanish Adelante means "go forward," and Adelante África sort of sounded better than "Go Forward, Africa."

Interviewer How long did it take to raise the money for the new school?

Jane Amazingly enough, not long really, only about two years. The school opened on the 14th March 2010 with 75 children. Today, it has nearly 500 children.

Interviewer That's great! I understand that since the new school opened you've been working on other projects for these children.

Jane Yes. When we opened the school we realized that although the children now had a beautiful new school, they couldn't really make much progress because they were suffering from malnutrition, malaria, things like that. So we've been working to improve their diet and health, and at the moment we're building a house where children who don't have families can live.

Interviewer And are your children involved in Adelante África too?

Jane Yes, absolutely! They all go out to Uganda at least once a year. My daughter Tessie runs the Facebook page, and my other daughter Ana runs a project to help children to go to secondary school, and Georgie, my son, organizes a football tournament there every year.

Interviewer And how do you think you have most changed the children's lives?

Jane I think the school has changed the children's lives because it has given them hope. People from outside came and listened to them and cared about them. But it's not only the children whose lives have changed. Adelante África has also changed me and my family. We have been very lucky in life. I feel that life has given me a lot. Now I want to give something back. But it's not all giving. I feel that I get more from them than I give! I love being there. I love their smiles and how they have such a strong sense of community, and I love feeling that my family and the other members of Adelante África are accepted as part of that community.

Interviewer And do you have a website?

Jane Yes, we do. It's www.adelanteafrica.com.

We've had the website for about four years. It was one of the first things we set up. If you'd like to find out more about Adelante África, please go there and have a look. There are lots of photos and even a video my son took of me teaching the children to sing on that first day. Maybe it will change your life too, who knows?

I haven't had any music for the last three days, because my iPod broke, so paddling has been getting more boring. To pass the time I count or I name countries in my head, and sometimes I just look up at the sky. Sometimes the sky is pink with clouds that look like cotton, and other times it's dark like the smoke from a fire, and sometimes it's bright blue. The day that I reached the half way point in my trip, the sky was bright blue. I'm superstitious so I didn't celebrate – there's still a very long way to go.

Phone call 5

This week the mosquitoes have been driving me crazy. They obviously think I'm easy food! They especially like my feet. I wake up in the night when they bite me, and I can't stop scratching my feet.

But I'm feeling happier now than I've been feeling for weeks. I've seen a lot of amazing wildlife this week. One day, I found myself in the middle of a group of dolphins. There were about six pairs jumping out of the water. I've also seen enormous butterflies, iguanas, and vultures that fly above me in big groups. Yesterday, a fish jumped into my kayak. Maybe it means I'm going to be lucky. I am starting to feel a little sad that this adventure is coming to an end.

And finally on the news, TV host Helen Skelton has successfully completed her 1,998-mile trip down the Amazon River in a kayak. She left from Nauta in Peru six weeks ago on a trip that many people said would be impossible. But yesterday, she crossed the finish line at Almeirim in Brazil to become the first woman to paddle down the Amazon. Here's Helen: "It's been hard, but I've had an amazing time. The only thing I've really missed is my dog Barney. So the first thing I'm going to do will be to pick him up and take him for a nice long walk."

2 15)))

Host And on tonight's program we talk to Tom Dixon, who is an expert on road safety. Tom, new technology like GPS devices has meant new distractions for drivers, hasn't it?

Tom That's right, Nicky, but it isn't just technology that's the problem. Car drivers do a lot of other things while they're driving that are dangerous and that can cause accidents. Remember, driver distraction is the number one cause of road accidents.

Host Now I know you've been doing a lot of tests with simulators. According to your tests, what's the most dangerous thing to do when you're driving?

Tom The tests we did in a simulator showed that the most dangerous thing to do while you're driving is to send or receive a text message. This is incredibly dangerous, and it is, of course, illegal. In fact, research done by the police shows that this is more dangerous than drinking and driving.

Host Why is that?

Tom Well, the reason is obvious – many people use two hands to text, one to hold the phone and the other to type. Which means that they don't have their hands on the wheel, and they're looking at the phone, not at the road. Even for people who can text with one hand, it's still extremely dangerous. In the tests we did in the simulator, two of the drivers crashed while texting.

Host And which is the next most dangerous?

Tom The next most dangerous thing is to set or adjust your GPS. This is extremely hazardous too because although you can do it with one hand, you still have to take your eyes off the road for a few seconds.

Host And number three?

Tom Number three was putting on makeup or doing your hair. In fact, this is something that people often do, especially women, of course, when they stop at traffic lights, but if they haven't finished when the lights change, they often continue when they start driving again. It's that fatal combination of just having one hand on the steering wheel, and looking in the mirror, not at the road.

Host And number four?

Tom In fourth place, there are two activities that are equally dangerous. One of them is making a phone call on a cell phone. Our research showed that when people talk on the phone, they drive more slowly (which can be just as dangerous as driving fast), but their control of the car gets worse, because they're concentrating on the phone call and not on what's happening on the road. But the other thing, which is just as dangerous as talking on your cell phone, is eating and drinking. In fact, if you do this, you double your chance of having an accident because eating and drinking always involves taking at least one hand off the steering wheel. And the thing that's most worrying here is that people don't think of this as a dangerous activity at all, and it isn't even illegal.

Host And in fifth, well actually sixth place. It must be listening to music, but what kind?

Tom Well, it's listening to music you know.

Host Oh, that's interesting.

Tom We found in our tests that when drivers were listening to music they knew and liked, they drove either faster or slower depending on whether the music was fast or slow.

Host So fast music made drivers drive faster.

Tom Exactly. And a study in Canada also found that if the music was very loud, then drivers' reaction time was 20% slower. If you're listening to very loud music you're twice as likely to go through a red light.

Host So the safest of all of the things on the list is to listen to music we don't know.

Tom Exactly. If we don't know the music, then it doesn't distract us. In this part of the tests all drivers drove safely.

A Excuse me, is this seat empty?

B Yes, sure sit down. Ah, he's cute. Is he yours?

A Yes, yes. Actually, he's a she. Miranda.

B Oh. Three months?

A Three and a half. How about yours?

B Stephen. He's four months. Did you have a bad night?

A Yes, Miranda was crying all night. You know, that noise gets to you. It drives me crazy.

B Do you know what you need? These.

A What are they? Earplugs?

B Yes. Earplugs! When the baby starts crying you just put these in. You can still hear the crying, but the noise isn't so bad, and it's not so stressful.

A That's a great idea! Who told you to do that?

B It's all in this book I read. You should get it.

A Yeah? What's it called?

B It's called Commando Dad. It was written by an ex-soldier. He was a commando in the army, and it's especially for men with babies or small children. It's pretty good.

A Really? So what's so good about it?

B Well, it's like a military manual. It tells you exactly what to do with a baby in any situation. It makes everything easier. There's a website, too, that you can go to – commandodad.com. It has a lot of advice about taking care of babies and small kids, and I really like the forums where men can write in with their problem or their experiences.

A What kind of things does it help you with?

B All kinds of things. How to change diapers – he has a really good system, how to dress the baby, how to get the baby to sleep, the best way to feed the baby, how to know if the baby is sick. It's really useful and it's pretty funny, too, I mean he uses a kind of military language, so for example he calls the baby a BT which means a baby trooper, and the baby's bedroom is base camp, and taking the baby for a walk is maneuvers, and taking the diapers to the trash is called bomb disposal.

A What else does it say?

B Well, it has all kinds of stuff about...

A And what does he think about men taking care of children? Does he think we do it well?

B He thinks that men are just as good as women at taking care of children in almost everything.

A Almost everything?

B Yeah, he says the one time when women are better than men is when the kids are sick. Women kind of understand better what to do. They have an instinct. Oh. Now it's my turn. OK, I know exactly what that cry means. It means he's hungry.

A Wow! What was that book called?

Kerri What happened with the band is private. I've already said I don't want to talk about it in interviews. All I'll say is that I have a lot more freedom this way. I can play – and say – what I want.

Rob Did your relationship with the band's lead guitarist affect the break up?

Kerri No comment. I never talk about my private life.

Rob Your Dad was in a famous punk band, and your Mum's a classical pianist, have they influenced your music?

Kerri Of course they have – what do you think? Isn't everyone influenced by their parents?

Kerri I started playing the guitar when I was about four.

Rob Four? That's pretty young.

Kerri Yeah, the guitar was nearly as big as me!

Rob I think that your new album is your best yet. It's a lot quieter and more experimental than your earlier albums.

Kerri Thank you! I think it's my best work.

Rob So what have you been doing recently?

Kerri Well, I've been writing and recording some new songs. And I've played at some of the summer festivals in the UK.

Rob And what are you doing while you're in the States?

Waitress Fantastic.

Kerri See what I mean? Personally, I think people in London are a lot more easygoing. London's just not as hectic as New York.

Don Sure, we all like peace and quiet. But in my opinion, New York is possibly... well, no, is definitely the greatest city in the world. Don't you agree?

Kerri To be honest, I definitely prefer London.

Don Come on, Rob. You've lived in both. What do you think?

Rob Um, well, I have to say, London's very special. It's more relaxed, it's got great parks and you can cycle everywhere. It's dangerous to cycle in New York!

Don Why would you cycle when you can drive a car?

Kerri You can't be serious.

Don OK, I agree, London has its own peculiar charm. But if you ask me, nothing compares with a city like New York. The whole world is here!

Kerri But that's the problem. It's too big. There are too many people. Everybody's so stressed out. And nobody has any time for you.

Jenny I don't think that's right, Kerri. New Yorkers are very friendly...

Kerri Oh sure, they can sound friendly with all that "Have a nice day" stuff. But I always think it's a little bit... fake.

Don You've got to be kidding me!

Rob I'm sorry. I'll just have to take this... Hello?... Yes... You're who?... The taxi driver?... What did she leave? ... Her cell phone... right. OK. Yes, we're still at the restaurant. See you in about five minutes.

1 One very easy thing you can do, is just change the language to English on all the gadgets you have, for example on your phone, or laptop, or tablet. That way you're reading English every day and without really noticing you just learn a whole lot of vocabulary, for example the things you see on your screen like Are you sure you want to shut down now, things like that.

2 My tip is to do things that you like doing, but in English. So for example, if you like reading, then read in English, if you like movies, watch them in English with subtitles, if you like computer games, play them in English. But don't do things you don't enjoy in your language, I mean if you don't like reading in your language, you'll enjoy it even less in English, and so you probably won't learn anything.

3 What really helped me to improve my English was having an American boyfriend. He didn't speak any Japanese – well, not many foreigners do – so we spoke English all the time, and my English improved really quickly. We broke up when he went back to the US, but by then I could speak pretty fluently. We didn't exactly end up as friends, but I'll always be grateful to him for the English I learned. So my tip is try to find an English-speaking boyfriend or girlfriend.

4 I've always thought that learning vocabulary is very important, so I bought a vocabulary flash card app for my phone. I write down all the new words and phrases I want to remember in French and in English, and then when I get a quiet moment I test myself. It really helps me remember new vocabulary. So that's my tip. Get a vocabulary learning app for your phone.

5 I think one of the big problems when you're learning something new is motivation, something to make you continue and not give up. So my tip is to book yourself a vacation in an English-speaking country or a country where people speak very good English, like the Caribbean, as a little reward for yourself, and so you can actually practice your English. It's really motivating when you go somewhere and find that people understand you and you can communicate! Last year, I went to the Bahamas for a weekend, and I had a great time, and I spoke a lot of English.

6 If you love music, which I do, my tip is to listen to as many songs as possible in English and then learn to sing them. It's so easy nowadays with YouTube. First, I download the lyrics and try to understand them. Then I sing along with the singer and try to copy the way he or she sings – this is fantastic for your pronunciation. Then once I can do it well, I go back to YouTube and get a karaoke version of the song, and then I sing it. It's fun and your English will really improve as a result.

I always thought that good manners were good manners wherever you were in the world. But that was until met my boyfriend Jason, who is from Burma—also known as Myanmar. We met in upstate New York, when we were both students in college. When we first got to know each other, we were always surrounded by a group of friends. I liked Jason because he was funny and kind, and I could tell he liked me, but we never spent any time alone.

The first time I suggested that we hang out without our friends, he said no without an explanation, which I thought was kind of rude. My feelings were hurt, so I didn't talk to him as much. The next time I saw Jason in our big group, he was just as friendly and happy as usual. I was confused.

Finally, I asked him why he wouldn't hang out with me. He apologized and then he told me that in Burma, it's custom to "date" in a group situation. Since he had only been in the US for a few years, he was still having trouble navigating the two cultures he lived in—the more reserved Burmese culture and the more open American culture.

A few months later, after we we started dating, I asked him why he never responded to my cute, romantic Facebook posts with more than "cool" or "thanks." It seemed weird to me that his responses weren't romantic. And honestly, I was a little jealous of the sweet posts my American friends' boyfriends left on their Facebook pages.

But Jason told me in Burma, it's considered bragging to express your feelings in public, especially on a social networking site. He didn't want his family and friends to think he was bragging about his American girlfriend. From an American point of view, I thought he was being a bit cold; however from a Burmese point of view, he was actually being respectful.

As confused as I was about what's considered good and bad manners in Jason's culture, he felt the same way about American culture. He thought it was bad manners to refer to have a "best friend," and he would argue with me whenever I called my friend Rachel, my best friend. Jason said there is no such thing as a "best friend" in Burmese culture. There are only "close friends." It would be inconsiderate to name one person as a "best friend" because your other friends would feel offended.

Anyway, we've been together for two years, and we still have disagreements. But, we've learned that as long as we're a couple, we'll never completely agree about whether our manners are good or bad, and that most importantly...it's OK to agree to disagree!

Part 1

Interviewer What made you want to become a soccer referee, or football referee as you would call it?

Juan My father was a referee, but that didn't influence me – in fact, the opposite because I saw all the problems that he had as a referee. But as a child I was always attracted by the idea of being a referee, and at school I used to referee all kinds of sports, basketball, handball, volleyball, and of course, football. I was invited to join the Referee's Federation when I was only 14 years old.

Interviewer Were you good at sports yourself?

Juan Yes, I was a very good handball player. People often think that referees become referees because they are frustrated sportsmen, but this is just not true in most cases in my experience.

Interviewer What was the most exciting match you ever refereed?

Juan It's difficult to choose one match as the most exciting. I remember some of the Real Madrid–Barcelona matches, for example the first one I ever refereed. The atmosphere was incredible in the stadium. But really it's impossible to pick just one – there have been so many.

Interviewer What was the worst experience you ever had as a referee?

Juan The worst? Well, that was something that happened very early in my career. I was only 16, and I was refereeing a match in a town in Spain, and the home team lost. After the match, I was attacked and injured by the players of the home team and by the spectators. After all these years I can still remember a mother, who had a little baby in her arms, who was trying to hit me. She was so angry with me that she nearly dropped her baby. That was my worst moment, and it nearly made me stop being a referee.

Interviewer Do you think that there's more cheating in soccer than in the past?

Juan Yes, I think so.

Interviewer Why?

Juan I think it's because there's so much money in football today that it's become much more important to win. Also football is much faster than it used to be, so it's much more difficult for referees to detect cheating.

Interviewer How do soccer players cheat?

Juan Oh, there are many ways, but for me the worst thing in football today is what we call "simulation." Simulation is when a player pretends to have been fouled when in fact he hasn't. For example, sometimes a player falls over in the penalty area when, in fact, nobody has touched him and this can result in the referee giving a penalty when it wasn't a penalty. In my opinion, when a player does this he's cheating not only the referee, not only the players of the other team, but also the spectators, because spectators pay money to see a fair contest.

3 9)))

Part 2

Interviewer What's the most difficult thing about being a referee?

Juan The most difficult thing is to make the right decisions during a match. It's difficult because you have to make decisions when everything's happening so quickly – football today is very fast. You must remember that everything is happening at 100 kilometres an hour. Also important decisions often depend on the referee's interpretation of the rules. Things aren't black and white. And of course making decisions would be much easier if players didn't cheat.

Interviewer Do you think that the idea of fair play doesn't exist any more?

Juan Not at all. I think fair play does exist – the players who cheat are the exceptions.

Interviewer Finally, who do you think is the best player right now?

Juan I think most people agree that the best footballer today is Leo Messi.

Interviewer Why do you think he's so good?

Juan It's hard to say what makes him so special, but a study was done on him which showed that Messi can run faster with the ball than many footballers can do without the ball. Apart from his great ability, what I also like about him is that he isn't the typical superstar footballer. You can see that he enjoys playing football, and he behaves in public and in his personal life in a very normal way. That's unusual when you think how famous he is. And what's more he doesn't cheat – he doesn't need to!

Host Hello, and welcome to Forum, the program that asks you what you think about current topics. Today Martha Park will be talking about the social networking site Facebook, how we use it, how much we like it – or dislike it. So get ready to call us, or text us and tell us what you think. The number as always is 555-4318. Martha.

Martha Hello. Since Facebook was first launched in 2004, a lot of research has been done to find out what kind of people use it, what they use it for, and what effect it has on their lives. According to a recent study by consumer research specialist Intersperience, the average 22 year old in Britain has over 1,000 online friends. In fact, 22 seems to be the age at which the number of friends peaks. It also appears that women have slightly more online friends than men. And another study from an American university shows that people who spend a lot of time on Facebook reading other people's posts tend to feel more dissatisfied with their own lives, because they feel that everyone else is having a better time than they are. So, over to you. Do you use Facebook? How do you feel about it? Can you really have 1,000 friends? Are social networking sites making us unhappy? Call in and share your experiences...

3 24)))

Host And our first caller is Young. Go ahead, Young.

Young Hi. Uh, yeah, I use Facebook a lot, every day. I think it's a great way to, uh, organize your social life and keep in touch with your friends. I have a lot of friends.

Martha How many friends do you have, Young?

Young Right now, I have 1,042.

Martha And how many of them do you know personally?

Young About half maybe?

Martha And what do you use Facebook for?

Young For me, it's a good way to get in touch with my friends without having to use the phone all the time. When I'm having a busy week at school, I can change my status so I can let my friends know I can't go out. That's a lot easier than wasting time telling people "sorry I'm too busy to get together." It's just easier and quicker than using the phone.

Host Thanks, Young. We have another caller. It's Beth. Hello, Beth.

Beth Hi. Uh, I don't use Facebook or any other social networking site.

Martha Why's that Beth?

Beth Well, two reasons. First, I don't spend much time online. I play a lot of sports – I'm on a hockey team, so I meet my teammates almost every day, and we don't need to communicate on Facebook.

Martha And the other reason?

Beth I just don't really like the whole idea of social networking sites. I mean, why would I want to tell the whole world everything that I'm doing? I don't want to share my personal information with the world and become friends with people I don't even know. And I don't want to read what other people had for breakfast or lunch or dinner or what they're planning to do this weekend.

Host Thanks for that, Beth. Our next caller is Emma. It's your turn, Emma.

Martha Hi, Emma

Emma Hi, Martha.

Martha And do you use Facebook, Emma?

Emma I use it once in a while, but not very much. I only really use it to keep up with friends who have moved abroad or live too far away for us to meet regularly. For example, one of my best friends recently moved to Canada, and we chat on Facebook. But I never add friends who are people I hardly know. I just can't understand those people who collect hundreds or even thousands of Facebook friends! I think it's just competition, people who want to make it seem that they're more popular than everybody else.

Martha So you think the Facebook world is kind of unreal?

Emma Absolutely. I think people write things and post photos of themselves just to show everyone they know what a fantastic time they're having and what exciting lives they lead. But they're probably just sitting at home in front of the computer all the time.

Host Thanks for that, Emma. We have time for one more caller before the news, and it's Ned. Hi, Ned. You'll have to be quick.

Martha Hi, Ned.

Ned Hi. When I started off with Facebook, I thought it was great, and I used it to communicate with close friends and with family, and I got back in touch with old friends from school. It was good because all the people I was friends with on Facebook were people I knew, and I was interested in what they were doing. But then I started adding friends, people I hardly knew who were friends of friends, people like that – in the end, I had more than a 1,000 – and it just became too much. It was just too many people leaving updates, writing messages on my wall. So last month I decided to delete most of them. It took me about half an hour to delete, and in the end, the only people I left were actual, real-life friends and family, and old school friends. I got it down to 99. It was really liberating.

Host Thanks, Ned, and we'll be back after the news, so keep those calls coming.

3 25)))

Jenny Monica!

Monica Jenny!

Jenny Wow! How are you? You look great!

Monica Thanks, Jenny! You look really good, too.

Jenny Hey, why don't we get some coffee?

Monica I'd love to, but I'm on the way to meet... oh, come on. Five minutes!

Jenny So, how is everything?

Monica Oh, great. Things couldn't be better actually. Scott and I... we're getting married!

Jenny You're what? Congratulations!

Monica Thank you!

Jenny When did you get engaged?

Monica Only a few days ago. I'm glad I saw you actually. I was going to call you. We've only told family so far.

Jenny I can't believe it. Monica the wife! And to think you used to go clubbing every night!

Monica Well, that was a few years ago! All I want to do now is stay in and read wedding magazines.

Jenny And how are the plans coming along?

Monica I haven't done anything yet. My mom and Scott's mom want to organize the whole thing themselves!

Jenny That's what mothers are for!

Monica True. But what about you? You look fantastic.

Jenny Well, I guess I'm kind of happy, too.

Monica Uh-huh. What's his name?

Jenny Rob.

Monica You've been keeping him very quiet! Is it serious?

Jenny Um, it's kind of, you know...

Monica So it is!

Jenny It's still early. We haven't been together for long. He only moved here from London a few months ago...

Monica What? He's British? And you think you can persuade him to stay in New York? That won't be easy!

Jenny I think he likes it here. You know how guys are, you never know what they're thinking.

Monica When can I meet him?

Jenny Uh... that's him now.

3 26)))

Rob Do you mind if I join you?

Monica Of course not. Come on, sit down.

Rob Thank you.

Monica I have to leave in a minute anyway.

Rob Could I have a large latte, please?

Waiter Of course.

Jenny Rob, this is Monica.

Monica Nice to meet you, Rob.

Rob You too, Monica. You know, Jenny talks about you a lot. And I've seen college photos of you two together. At Jenny's parents' house.

Jenny Of course you have. My dad's photos.

Rob You've hardly changed at all.

Monica What a nice man! I can see why you like him, Jenny. The perfect English gentleman.

Waiter Your latte.

Rob Oh, thanks. Can you pass the sugar?

Jenny Sure.

Monica Sorry guys, but I have to go.

Rob You're sure I haven't interrupted anything?

Monica Not at all. It's just that I have to meet someone. But let's get together very soon.

Jenny We will!

Monica Bye, Rob. Nice meeting you.

Rob Bye.

Jenny Bye. Talk soon.

Rob She seems like a happy person.

Jenny She is, especially right now - she's getting married.

Rob That's fantastic news!

Jenny Yeah, it is. I guess we're at that age now.

When most of our friends are settling down and getting married.

Rob Yeah... Oh, speaking of friends, I want to ask you a favor. Is it OK if we change our plans a bit this week?

Jenny Uh... sure. What's up?

Rob I've just had a call from an old friend of mine, Paul. I haven't seen him since we were at university, and he's traveling around the States at the moment. Anyway, he's arriving in New York this evening and, uh... I've invited him to stay for the week.

Jenny Cool! It'll be fun to meet one of your old friends! What's he like?

Rob Oh, Paul's a laugh. He used to be a bit wild, but that was a long time ago. He's probably changed completely.

Jenny Well, I'm looking forward to meeting him.

Rob Just one other thing. Could you do me a big favor? I have to work late this evening so... would you mind meeting him at the airport?

Jenny Not at all. I'd like to meet him.

Rob And do you think you could take him to my flat? I'll give you the keys.

Jenny No problem, Rob.

Rob Thanks so much, Jenny. You're a real star.

3 29)))

Paul Hey, man!

Rob Paul!

Paul It's great to see you, mate.

Rob You too, Paul. It's been years. You haven't changed at all.

Paul Just got better looking!

Rob How come you're so late?

Jenny Paul's flight from LA was delayed. And then the traffic coming back was just awful.

Paul But that gave us time to get to know each other.

Jenny Yeah. Paul told me all about his travels. Every detail.

Paul And look at this. Your own New York flat. How cool is that?

Rob It's good. Really good. But – do you want something to eat? I got some things on my way home.

Paul Stay in? It's my first night in the Big Apple! Let's go out and have a pizza or something.

Rob I thought you'd be tired after the flight.

Paul No way, man! I'm ready for action.

Rob Great! I'll get my jacket...

Jenny Rob, I think I'll go home if you don't mind. I, uh, I'm exhausted.

Rob Oh, OK then.

Paul So it's a boys' night out!

Rob Just like the old days!

Paul And after the pizza we can go on somewhere else. Rob, we've got a lot to talk about!

simple present and continuous, action and nonaction verbs

simple present: I live, he works, etc.

- 1 I work in a bank. She studies Russian. (1 10)))
We don't have any pets. Jack doesn't wear glasses.
Where do you live? Does your brother have a car?
- 2 She usually has cereal for breakfast.
I'm never late for work.
We only eat out about once a month.

- 1 We use the simple present for things that are always true or happen regularly.
- Remember the spelling rules for third person singular, e.g., lives, studies, watches.
  - Remember the word order for questions: (question word), auxiliary, subject, base form of verb. Do you know David? What time does the movie start?
- 2 We often use the simple present with adverbs of frequency, e.g., usually, never, or expressions of frequency, e.g., every day, once a week.
- Adverbs of frequency go before the main verb, and after be.
  - Expressions of frequency usually go at the end of the sentence or verb phrase.

present continuous: be + verb + -ing

- A Who are you waiting for? (1 11)))
B I'm waiting for a friend.
A Is your sister still going out with Adam?
B No, they broke up. She isn't going out with anyone right now.

- We use the present continuous (not the simple present) for actions in progress at the time of speaking, e.g., things that are happening now or around now. These are usually temporary, not habitual actions.
- Remember the spelling rules, e.g., living, studying, getting.
- We also use the present continuous for future arrangements (see 1B).

action and nonaction verbs

- A What are you cooking? (1 12)))
B I'm making pasta.
A Great! I love pasta.
A What are you looking for?
B My car keys.
A I'll help you in a minute.
B But I need them now!

- Verbs that describe actions, e.g., cook, make, can be used in the simple present or continuous. I'm making lunch. I usually make lunch on the weekend.
- Verbs that describe states or feelings (not actions), e.g., love, need, be, are nonaction verbs. They are not usually used in the present continuous, even if we mean "now."
- Common nonaction verbs are agree, be, believe, belong, depend, forget, hate, hear, know, like, love, matter, mean, need, prefer, realize, recognize, remember, seem, suppose.

 Verbs that can be both action and nonaction
A few verbs have an action and a nonaction meaning, e.g., have and think.
I have a cat now. = possession (nonaction)
I can't talk now. I'm having lunch. = an action
I think this music's great. = opinion (nonaction)
What are you thinking about? = an action

- a Complete the sentences with the simple present or present continuous forms of the verbs in parentheses.
- We don't go to Chinese restaurants very often. (not go)
- These days, most children _____ too many sugary snacks. (have)
  - _____ you _____ any vitamins right now? (take)

future forms

be going to + base form

future plans and intentions (1 17))

My sister's going to adopt a child.

Are you going to buy a new car or a used one?

I'm not going to go to New York City tomorrow. The meeting is canceled.

predictions (1 18))

The Yankees are going to win. They're playing really well. Look at those black clouds. I think it's going to rain.

- We use going to (NOT will / won't) when we have already decided to do something. NOT My sister will adopt a child.
- We also use going to to make a prediction about the future, especially when you can see or have some evidence (e.g., black clouds).

present continuous: be + verb + -ing

future arrangements (1 19))

Lorna and James are getting married in October.

We're meeting at 10:00 tomorrow in Jack's office.

Jane's leaving on Friday and coming back next Tuesday.

- We often use the present continuous for future arrangements.
- There is very little difference between the present continuous and going to for future plans / arrangements, and often you can use either.

- going to shows that you have made a decision. We're going to get married next year.
- the present continuous emphasizes that you have made the arrangements. We're getting married on October 12th. (= we've ordered the invitations, etc.)
- We often use the present continuous with verbs relating to travel arrangements, e.g., go, come, arrive, leave, etc. I'm going to Tokyo tomorrow and coming back on Tuesday.

will + base form

instant decisions, promises, offers, predictions, future facts, suggestions (1 20))

I'll have the steak. (instant decision)

I won't tell anybody where you are. (promise)

I'll carry that bag for you. (offer)

You'll love New York City! (prediction)

I'll be home all afternoon. (future fact)

We use will / won't (NOT the simple present) for instant decisions, promises, offers, and suggestions. NOT I carry that bag for you.

- We can also use will / won't for predictions, e.g., I think the Yankees will win, and to talk about future facts, e.g., The election will be on March 1st.

- a Circle the correct form. Check ✓ the sentence if both are possible.

My grandparents are going to retire / will retire next year. ✓

- 1 We'll invite / We're going to invite your parents for Sunday lunch?
- 2 I'm going to make / I'll make a cake for your mom's birthday, if you want.
- 3 I'm not having / I'm not going to have dinner with my family tonight.
- 4 The exam will be / is being on the last Friday of the semester.
- 5 You can trust me. I'm not telling / I won't tell anyone what you told me.
- 6 My cousin is arriving / will arrive at 5:30 p.m.
- 7 I think the birthrate will go down / is going to go down in my country in the next few years.
- 8 I'm not going to go / I won't go to my brother-in-law's party next weekend.
- 9 I'm going to help / I'll help you with the dishes.

- b Complete B's replies with a correct future form.

A What's your stepmother going to do about her car?

B She's going to buy a used one. (buy)

I've already seen this movie twice. Can't we watch another one?

My brother hasn't found a job yet. He's still looking.

Have you finished your homework yet? No, not yet.

- We use the present perfect for past experiences when we don't say exactly when they happened.
  - We often use ever and never when we ask or talk about past experiences. They go before the main verb.
- In American English, we use the present perfect and the simple past with yet and already.
  - already* is used in  $\boxed{+}$  sentences and goes before the main verb.
  - yet* is used with  $\boxed{-}$  sentences and  $\boxed{?}$ . It goes at the end of the phrase.
  - For irregular past participles see Irregular verbs p.165.

simple past (worked, stopped, went, had, etc.)

They got married last year.

Julia has had that bag since she was in college.

A How long have you worked here?

B Since 1996.

A How long has your brother had his motorcycle?

B For about a year.

- We use the present perfect + for or since with nonaction verbs (e.g., like, have, know, etc.) to talk about something that started in the past and is still true now.

They've known each other for ten years. (= they met ten years ago, and they still know each other today)

- We use How long...? + present perfect to ask about an unfinished period of time (from the past until now).
- We use for + a period of time, e.g., for two weeks, or since + a point of time, e.g., since 1990.
- Don't use the simple present with for / since, NOT They know each other for a long time.

present perfect continuous: have / has been + verb + -ing

1 How long have you been learning English?

1 48)))

Olive oil is better for you than butter.
- 2 The new sofa isn't as comfortable as the old one.
I don't have as many books as I used to.

- 1 We use comparative adjectives to compare two people, places, things, etc.
- Regular comparative adjectives: spelling rules old > older    big > bigger    easy > easier modern > more modern    difficult > more difficult
  - Irregular comparative adjectives:
good > better    bad > worse    far > farther | further
  - One-syllable adjectives ending in -ed:
bored > more bored    stressed > more stressed tired > more tired
- 2 We can also use (not) as + adjective + as to make comparisons.

Object pronouns (me, him, etc.) after than and as

After than or as we can use an object pronoun (me, him, her, etc.) or a subject pronoun (I, he, she, etc.) + auxiliary verb.

She's taller than me. OR She's taller than I am.
NOT She's taller than I.

They're not as busy as us. OR They're not as busy as we are.
NOT They're not as busy as we.

the same as

We use the same as to say that two people, places, things, etc. are identical.

Her dress is the same as mine.

comparing two actions

The small bag is the least expensive.
Lucy is the best student in the class.
Who dresses the most stylishly in your family?
That's the worst we've ever played.

- We use superlative adjectives and adverbs to compare people, things, or actions with all of their group.
- Form superlatives like comparatives, but use -est instead of -er and most / least instead of more / less.
- We usually use the before superlatives, but you can also use possessive adjectives, e.g., my best friend, their most famous song.
- We often use a superlative with present perfect + ever, e.g., It's the best book I've ever read.

in after superlatives

Use in (NOT of) before places after a superlative.
It's the longest bridge in the world. NOT of the world
It's the best beach in Florida. NOT of Florida

- a Complete with the comparative or superlative of the bold word (and than if necessary).

can, could, be able to (ability and possibility)

can / could

I can speak three languages fluently.
 Jenny can't come tonight. She's sick.
 My cousin could play the violin when she was three.
 They couldn't wait because they were in a hurry.
Could you open the door for me, please?

2 34)))

- can is a modal verb. It only has a present form (which can be used with future meaning) and a past or conditional form (could).
- For all other tenses and forms, we use be able to + base form.

be able to + base form

1 Luke has been able to swim since he was three.
 I'd like to be able to ski.
 I love being able to stay in bed late on Sunday morning.
 You'll be able to practice your English in the US.
 2 Fortunately, I am able to accept your invitation.
 My colleagues weren't able to come to yesterday's meeting.

2 35)))

- 1 We use be able to + base form for ability and possibility, especially where there is no form of can, e.g., future, present perfect, infinitive and gerund, etc.
- 2 We sometimes use be able to in the present and past (instead of can / could), usually if we want to be more formal.

a Complete with the correct form of be able to (+, -, or ?).

I've never been able to scuba dive.

- 1 Her cell phone has been turned off all morning, so I _____ talk to her yet.
- 2 I don't like noisy restaurants. I like _____ have a conversation without shouting.

have to, must, should ## have to / must (+ base form)

- 1 You have to wear a seat belt in the car. (2 42)))
Do you have to work on Saturdays?
I had to wear a uniform at my elementary school.
I 'll have to get up early tomorrow. My interview is at 9:00.
- 2 You must be on time tomorrow because there's a test.
You must remember to call Emily – it's her birthday.
- 3 I love the Louvre! You have to go when you're in Paris.
You must see this movie – it's amazing!

- have to and must are usually used to talk about obligation or something that is necessary to do.
- 1 have to is a normal verb and it exists in all tenses and forms, e.g., also as a gerund or infinitive.
  - 2 must is a modal verb. It only exists in the present, but it can be used with a future meaning.
  - 3 You can also use have to or must for strong recommendations.

 have to or must?

Have to and must have a very similar meaning, and you can usually use either form.

Have to is more common for general, external obligations, for example rules and laws.

Must is more common for specific (i.e., on one occasion) or personal obligations. Compare:

I have to wear a shirt and tie at work. (= It's the rule in this company.)

I must buy a new shirt – this one is too old now. (= It's my own decision.)

have got to

Have got to is often used instead of have to in spoken English, e.g., I've got to go now. It's very late.

don't have to

You don't have to pay – this museum is free. (2 43)))
You don't have to go to the party if you don't want to.

must not

You must not park here. (2 44)))

- We use don't have to when there is no obligation to do something, and must not when something is prohibited.
- don't have to and must not are completely different. Compare:
You don't have to drive – we can take a train. (= You can drive if you want to, but it's not necessary / obligatory.)
You must not drive along this street. (= It's prohibited, against the law, NOT You don't have to drive along this street.)
- You can often use can't or not allowed to instead of must not.
You must not / can't / 're not allowed to park here.

should / shouldn't (+ base form)

You should take warm clothes with you to Quito. (2 45)))
It might be cold at night.
You shouldn't drink so much coffee. It isn't good for you.
I think the government should do something about unemployment.

- should is not as strong as must / have to. We use it to give advice or an opinion – to say if we think something is the right or wrong thing to do.
- should is a modal verb. The only forms are should / shouldn't.

- a Complete with the correct form of have to (+, -, or ?).

simple past: worked, stopped, went, had, etc.

She was born in Seoul. (3 10))
They got married last year.
On the way to Rome we stopped in Florence for the night.
The plane didn't arrive on time.
What time did you get up this morning?

- We use the simple past for finished actions in the past (when we say, ask, or know when they happened).
- Remember Irregular verbs p.165.

past continuous: was / were + verb + -ing

1 What were you doing at six o'clock last night? (3 11))
2 I was driving along the freeway when it started snowing.
3 While I was doing the housework the children were playing in the yard.
4 It was a cold night and it was raining. I was watching TV in the living room...

- 1 We use the past continuous to talk about an action in progress at a specific time in the past.
- 2 We often use the past continuous to describe a past action in progress that was interrupted by another action (expressed in the simple past).
- 3 We often use the past continuous with while for two actions happening at the same time.
- 4 We often use the past continuous to describe the beginning of a story or anecdote.

a Circle the correct form.

- 8 The Lakers weren't losing / hadn't lost any of their games during their trip to the East Coast.
- 9 The referee suspended the game because it was raining / rained too hard to play.

past perfect: had + past participle

When they turned on the TV, the game had already finished. (3 12))
As soon as I shut the door, I realized that I 'd left my keys on the table.
We couldn't get a table in the restaurant because we hadn't booked one.

- We use the past perfect when we are talking about the past and we want to talk about an earlier past action. Compare:
When John arrived, they went out. (= first John arrived and then they went out)
When John arrived, they had gone out. (= they went out before John arrived) using narrative tenses together

It was a cold night and it was raining. I was watching TV in the living room. Suddenly I heard a knock at the door. I got up and opened the door. But there was nobody there. The person who had knocked on the door had disappeared... (3 13))

- Use the past continuous (was raining, was watching) to set the scene.
- Use the simple past (heard, got up, etc.) to say what happened.
- Use the past perfect (had knocked, had disappeared) to say what happened before the previous past action.

b Complete with the simple past, past continuous, or past perfect.

The marathon runner was sweating when she crossed the finish line. (sweat, cross)

 That building used to be a restaurant, but it closed down last year.
Did they use to live downtown?
Didn't you use to have long hair?

- 1 For present habits we can use usually or normally + simple present.
 NOT I used to get up at 8:00.
- 2 For past habits we use used to / didn't use to + base form.
- used to does not exist in the present tense. NOT I use to get up at 8:00 during the week.
  - We use used to for things that were true over a period of time in the past. Used to often refers to something that is not true now.
I used to play a lot of sports. (= I played a lot of sports for a period of time in the past, but now I don't.)
  - used to / didn't use to can be used with action verbs (e.g., go, do) and nonaction verbs (e.g., be, have).
  - We can also use the simple past to describe past habits (often with an adverb of frequency).
We (often) went to the beach for our vacations when I was a child.
I lived downtown until I got married.

 used to or simple past?

We can use used to or simple past for repeated actions or states, and the meaning is the same.

I used to live in Miami as a child. / I lived in Miami as a child.

But if the action happened only once, or we mention exact dates or number of times, we have to use simple past.

I went to Paris last year. NOT I used to go to Paris last year.

Jack caught the train to Chicago four times last week. NOT Jack used to catch the train to Chicago four times last week.

anymore and any longer

We often use not...anymore / any longer (= not now) with the simple present to contrast with used to.

False friends

Some words in English are very similar to words in other languages, but have different meanings.

Sensible looks very similar to sensible in Spanish and French, but in fact in English it means someone who has common sense and is practical. The Spanish / French word sensible translates as sensitive in English (to describe a person who is easily hurt).

Sympathetic does not mean the same as sempatik in Turkish (which mean nice, friendly). In English, sympathetic means a person who understands other people's feelings, e.g., My best friend was very sympathetic when I failed my exam last week.
